Mr. F. W. Gist,
Montgomery, Ala.

Dear Mr. Gist:

Please accept my sincere thanks for your reapportionment figures mailed me last week.

I think that these figures cover the situation pretty well as to the lower House, but I am still of the opinion that a bill allowing thirty members in the Senate will be more likely passed than one with twenty-eight; as we could thereby take care of two more senators under the present apportionment. I hope that you can work out such a plan in connection with the Senate for me.

Again thanking you, I remain

Sincerely yours,
