OBITUARY

Mr. Leo Griffis was born June 12, 1922 in Limestone County, Alabama, and departed this life June 10, at 1:00 A.M. at the Hines Hospital, Chicago, Illinois.

He professed a hope in Christ at an early age and joined the Newby's Chapel M. B. Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Alfred Booker, and there he served a faithful member until he later moved to Chicago and joined a church there.

He leaves to mourn his passing a devoted mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Griffis, Athens, Alabama, four sisters, Mrs. Lucille Cain, Mrs. Mable Mayberry, Mrs. Viola Binford of Athens, Alabama and Mrs. Ida Cartwright, Chicago, Illinois, four brothers, Mr. Robert Griffis, Mr. John L. Griffis of Chicago, Illinois and Mr. Terry Griffis, Jr., and Mr. Frank Griffis of Athens, Alabama, three aunts, Mrs. Carrie Ollaivia Chicago, Illinois, Mrs. Beulah Rainey of Decatur, Alabama and Mrs. Mable Horton, Nashville, Tennessee, one great aunt, Mrs. Susie Edwards of Athens, Alabama, two uncles, Mr. Richard Griffis, Chicago, Illinois and Mr. Will Horton, Athens, Alabama, one great uncle, Mr. Charlie White, Athens, Alabama, two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Maggie Griffis and Mrs. Benita Griffis of Chicago, Illinois, four brothers-in-law, Mr. Harvey Cartwright, Chicago, Illinois, Mr. Jessie Mayberry, Mr. David D. Cain and Mr. Sim Binford, Jr., all of Athens, Alabama, eight nieces and fourteen nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

*Must Jesus bear the Cross alone,
And all the world go free?
No, there's a Cross for everyone,
And there's a Cross for me.*
