

Pall Bearers

Grandsons

Flower Girls

Grand Daughters

The family acknowledges with grateful appreciation the many kind expressions of sympathy and love shown during the death of their loved one.

PEOPLES FUNERAL HOME
ATHENS, ALABAMA
Phone: 232-1600

Addie

FUNERAL SERVICES

For

Mrs. Bessie Mae Coleman

SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1978

1:00 P. M.

MT. NEBO MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH
REV. SAMUEL CRUTCHER, Officiating

BURIAL IN MAPLES CEMETERY

PEOPLES FUNERAL HOME In Charge

Obituary

God saw the rugged highway
Getting mighty hard to climb
So he closed the weary eyelids
and whispered peace devine

Mrs. Bessie Mae Coleman was born to the late Mr. Henry and Addie Inman in Limestone County, August 2, 1902. She confessed hope in Christ at a early age under the ministry Rev. Allen Beatry. She join the Mt. Nebo M. B. Church where she served as a faithful member and a mother of the church until death.

She departed this life Tuesday Morning, April 11, 1978 at Athens Limestone Hospital.

She leaves to mourn her death a devoted husband, Mr. Joe Coleman, Athens, Alabama; two daughters Mrs. Everlee Pryor and Mrs. Addie M. Davis of Athens, Alabama; four sons, Mr. Willie Coleman, Mr. River Coleman, Mr. Finest Coleman all of Athens, Alabama, and Mr. Oliver W. Coleman, Nashville, Tenn, two daughters -in-law, Mrs. Bernice Coleman, Nashville, Tenn., Mrs. Lela Coleman Athens, Alabama; twenty one grandchildren, sixty-two great grand children; two sisters, Mrs. Lucille Bradley, Pulaski, Tenn., Mrs. Jossie Malone, Athens, Alabama; four sisters-in-law, Mrs. Bessie Lee Coleman, Mrs. Vonia Inman, both of Pulaski, Tenn., Mrs. Albert Appleton, and Mrs. Lila Mae Maple of Athens, Alabama. A host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

*I heard Him Call
"Come follow" -- that was all
My gold grew dim
My soul went after Him;
That was all.
Who would not follow
If they hear Him Call?*

Programme

SELECTION Choir
SCRIPTURE Rev. Wilson Brown
SONG & PRAYER Deacon Hosea Maples
SELECTION Choir
AS A FRIEND Rev. Wilson Brown
AS A NEIGHBOR. Sister Maxine Sloss
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT Mr. James Horton
OBITUARY. Read Silently
EULOGY Rev. Samual Crutcher
SONG AND PRAYER Elder Harran Davies
SOLO Mr. Jerry
RECESSIONAL

