

Lynbrook L. I.

July 9th 1932.

My dearest Memory.

Thank you for your message of sympathy - your letter was wonderful - and appreciated more than I can tell you - Our friends have been such a consolation.
Life seems very odd and strange without Bozie - and had I not been a student of Theosophy - the road without him would seem less clear. You have been in my thoughts so much since it all happened.

Your letter was not a surprise at all - just seemed the most natural thing in the world. Gene and family are with me for the summer. My future plans are indefinite. Hope to make a visit to Athens this fall or winter. It is difficult to plan anything during this tail spin of the world. Am holding fast to my democratic inheritance - and will fall
