

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

March 31, 1930.

Mr. R. H. Walker,
Athens, Alabama.

Dear Harry:-

I am greatly pleased that I will have the benefit of your support and influence in my race for re-election, and am sure that it will be worth much to me.

Thanking you for this and assuring you of my desire to be of service to you whenever I can, and with kind regards and best wishes,

Cordially and sincerely,

Ed B. Almon
