My Granddaddy's Poem

Grandfather I'm going to miss you and your caring smile-
I know you had to leave, but couldn't you have stayed for a little while-
There are people who love you and really need you-
Without your guidance, some of us will not know what to do-
Although your body is gone, your spirit is still here-
So we will smile eventhough we cry tears-
I understand, it was your time to go-
But why now, I do not know-
I will never forget you cause you were my granddad-
Sad to say you were the only one I had-
I'm going to miss you and now I guess I have to say goodbye-
I should be happy, but all I do is cry-
I will forever think of you every day and night-
Knowing that you are watching me from heaven, I'm always in your sight.
I love you Granddaddy

Obituary

William Leon (Buddy) Flanagan was born to Daniel Flanagan and Nancy L. Flanagan on September 4, 1937 in Athens, Limestone County, Alabama. To this union two children were born Buddy and Dan Ella who preceded him in death.

Buddy accepted Christ at an early age and joined James Chapel Missionary Baptist Church. He was educated in the Limestone County School System and graduated from Trinity High School in 1956.

He moved to Louisville and married Mary Johnson and was employed at C. Lee Cook Dover Corporation.

He was an active member of Zion Missionary Baptist Church where he served on the Senior Usher Board, Assistant Supervisor Youth Ushers, Original Member of the Gospel Chorus, member of the Pastor's Aid, and A.M.E.N. Ministry, and was involved in the Youth Department and Trustee Board of Zion Missionary Baptist Church.

He was Cub Master for Pack 198 at Whitney M. Young Elementary School, Shawnee District Committee, Lincoln Heritage Council BSA, and Third Vice President of West End Lions Club.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his mother, Nancy L. Flanagan; three daughters, Beverly, Nashville, Tennessee, Venita, Louisville, Kentucky and Pamela of Atlanta, GA.; four sons, Steve and his wife Kris, Houston, TX., Kurt, California, Billy, Atlanta GA, Terry, Louisville, KY; ten grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; two uncles, Holmer Malone and Oliver Flanagan; two aunts, Della Griffin and Hazel Brown; a host of cousins and close friends.
