Reverend Elijah Gray III, Pastor

Obituary

Janiah Marshae McCullough was born May 3, 1998 to Marcus McCullough and Latoya Horton both of Athens, Alabama. Due to her long term illness and suffering, God called her home on December 27, 1998.

She leaves to cherish her loving parents. One sister, Jakia Tierra Horton (Tee) of Athens, Alabama; grandparents, Arthur Horton, Loretta (Morris) Malone, Nora (Clarence) McCullough, Johnny (Belle) Crutcher all of Athens, Alabama; two great-grandparents, Elnora Bailey and Willie Odell Horton both of Elkmont, Alabama; a host of aunts, uncles, other relatives who loved her dearly. A very special cousin that was dear to her, Teresa Moore (Babe).

We all loved her very much.

My Baby Girl

*My Baby girl
My God called her home from this old sinful world.
He left her here for just a little while,
Long enough to remember her beautiful smile.
Even though she was so small,
She was still loved by all.
I'm gonna miss you, My Shae.
But I know God will make a way.
From this day forward, I'm doing my best...
So I can fly away to be at rest.
(And be with you.)*

Love, Mom
