Obituary

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint."
- Isaiah 40:30

Ms. Betty Jean Murrah was born on November 22, 1945 to Mr. George Washington, Sr. and Florence D. McLin. Her father preceded her in death. She departed this life on June 17, 2005 in the Athens Convalescent Center.

In February 1970, she married Carl William Murrah and to this union two children were born. Later they divorced.

She confessed hope in Christ in the early 1980's and joined Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church under the pastoral care of Rev. Willie J. Mangruen. In 1998, she joined the Word of Faith Missionary Baptist Church and remained a faithful member until her illness.

She leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Mrs. Florence D. McLin of Athens, AL; two sons, Billy (Teresa) Daily of Athens, AL and Anthony E. McLin of Decatur, GA; two daughters, Carletta (David) Hannan of Athens, AL and Katrina (Chris) Toney of Huntsville, AL; three sisters, Barbara Binford of Huntsville, AL, Brenda McLin of Athens, AL and Marion (Armons) Thompson of Loganville, GA; one brother, George W. McLin, Jr. of Murfreesboro, TN; two aunts, Mable Daily and Mae Pearl McLin both of Athens, AL; three nieces, one nephew, six grandchildren, five step-grandchildren; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

God did not promise sun without rain,
Light without darkness or joy without pain
But, He did promise us strength for the day!
