

Jan 17, 1900

The Pulaski girls are going to give a dance Friday evening at the Arlington hotel and will be so glad to have you come up.

The girls are going to have it all their own way that night and ladies' choice will prevail so we promise you boys that you will be rushed to death. Now write such a thing in store for you I feel sure you won't disappoint us.

You Mr. Smith have never been up to any of our dances and we are getting to believe that you really don't care to come.

Please tell Mr. Frost and all the other boys that we want them to come to our dance. Now Mr. Walker try your powers of persuasion and not only bring yourself but get the other boys to come.

Hoping to see Arthur well represented Friday evening, believe me,

Yours Always Sincerely,

Sue Ruth Phillips.