From the Heart

Looking back on life,
I just did not see how much you really meant to the entire family. I did not tell you that I loved you, although I think you already knew. Because over the years, our relationship grew and grew.

But sadly, this morning we woke up without you in our lives.
And for now, we have to say goodbye. Although this is one of the hardest things that we will ever have to do, we must trust in the Lord. I know that He will bring us through.

Sandra, our lives will never be the same without you here.
Our hearts are heavy and our eyes are filled with tears. We understood you and loved the person that you were. You were always straight forward with us even if it meant that we would have to fuss.

You were our daughter, mother, sister, aunt, and friend. But for you, life's troubles and pains have come to an end. God said that it was time for you to leave. And it is hard for us not to grieve. Yet, we know that God is still good. He still sits high on the throne. He will comfort us and He will never leave us alone.

So as we mourn, we will remember all that you have done. We know that the race is over and the battle has been won. We will miss you forever and yet it is so hard to say, but God knows what's best and you are better off with Him anyway.

We Love You,
April and Jaylen

A Special Phone Call

She lived happy. She lived sad.
Her days have been good and her days have been bad.
God called her and she answered the phone.
He told her he loved her.

And it was time to come home.
So to you all don't shed a tear. The time has come for her to leave here. And to our family, she loved us all. God just gave her a special phone call.

Love Always,
Teddy and Tr'Maine
We Love You Sandra
