Obituary

MRS. DOVIE (WOODS) BROWN was born in the year of 1908, December 11, to the late Mr. Rane and Mrs. Anna Woods in Layfetta, Georgia.

Mrs. Dovie (Woods) Brown, age 72, 1210 Miller Street, Athens, Alabama, died Thursday afternoon in her daughter's home after a short illness. She had resided in Rockford, Illinois for the past two months. While visiting there from her home in Athens, Alabama, she confessed hope in Christ and united with Red Hill M. B. Church. Later she moved her membership to Sweet Home M. B. Church, where she stayed a member until death.

Survivors include two daughters, Matilda Moore and Estella Dowthard, both of Rockford, Illinois; a sister, Elsie Horton of Nashville, Tennessee; two brothers, Frank and John Woods, both of Athens, Alabama; twenty-one grandchildren, twenty-one great-grandchildren; two uncles, John Davis of Hall, Tennessee and Ben Davis of Detroit, Michigan; three nieces of Las Vegas, Nevada, and nephews of Las Vegas, Nevada.

*"Only that which was of earth,
Hath perished, only that which was infirm
Mortal, corruptible, and brought with it,
The seed connate of death.
A place in Time is given us,
Only that we may prepare
Our portion for Eternity."*
