15th,
1919

Mr. A. W. Newson,
Huntsville, Ala.

Dear Sir:-

Your favor of Jan. 13th to hand and we note contents.

We have stipulated and have a thorough understanding with Mr. Walker that if we trade with him whatever commission you are properly entitled to is to be paid by Mr. Walker.

We wish to give you this formal notice so that you may understand that if we deal with Mr. Walker and his associates you are not to look to us for any commission.

You are correct about the place being rented for the year 1919 and we of course are selling it subject to that rent note and that lease for 1919.

We are sending copy of this letter to Mr. Walker for his records, by registered mail.

Very truly yours,

A. Boyd
