

ALABAMA

R. H. WALKER, SENATOR
1ST DISTRICT--LAUDERDALE AND LIMESTONE
ATHENS

SENATE CHAMBER

MONTGOMERY

Sept. 22, 1932.

Dear Memory:

Have time for a few lines. You will see by the morning papers tomorrow that the senate killed my court of appeals bill; 16 lawyers and a few laymen who were under obligations to the Bricken and McDuffie families was too much for me.

The house will take up the Fletcher bill tomorrow morning.

It looks as if the measure will pass, ~~with~~ but expect there will be a good deal of opposition. Of course, Bob Goode wants his budget bill passed instead of Fletcher's. Wants to protect the agricultural department.

This week has been rather tiresome to all of us. The governor has come out with a lot of new tax bills and the power crowd are greatly disturbed. They don't know what's going to happen to them. They thought they were safe with Miller in the chair.

We may be late<sup>r</sup> getting away tomorrow afternoon on account of the budget bill being the special order in the house.

Hope you are getting along o. k. and that Bob Henry is continuing to be useful as well as ornamental. I met Mills, managing editor of the B'ham Post. Said he wanted to meet William.

Devotedly yours,
