FLOWERLADIES:

Eastern Stars

Sunset and evening star, and one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar, when I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep, turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell, and after that the dark! And may there be No sadness of farewell when I embark.

For though from out our bourne of time,
And place the floor may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot's face,
When I have crossed the bar.
