and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 7th day of October, 1931 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
James T. Spence

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
P. W. Hendricks, Jr.      Henry B. Zeitler,
Earl Phillips,      Luke L. Rogers,
Ernest C. Douthit,      Effie L. Brooks
Isom T. Woodfin,
And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____the sum of _____ ($ _____)
unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

William G. Martin,	J. Belt Cole,	John T. Griggs,	Macon Pugh,
Kirby Lee Johnson,	Wm. E. Roberts,	Robt. M. Weatherford,	Herbert Miller,
Jonas O. Jenkins,	Huston T. Hardison,	Knox M. Biles,	Sam A. Hasting
Tom G. Ervine,	Clifford B. Zehner,	J. W. Johnston,
Carl Preston,	Clarence Swanner,	J. Luther Powers,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, William G. Martin was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. _____
S. W. Parham was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

- William G. Martin,

Kirby Lee Johnson,

James C. Jenkins,

Tom G. Devine,

Carl Preston,
- J. Belt Cole,

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 9 day of March, 1932. B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Odie Jones, James D. Bullington, Roy P. Norton and Wm. F. Mitchell

By J. E. Wellden, D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Roy Whitt, James G. Rochell, Ripley M. Lunsford, Chas. O. McEniry and Garland Smith

And it appearing to the Court that;

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Olin M. Edmundson,	Frank M. Fogg,	J. Luther Glaze,	W. Frank Fielding,
Malcolm C. Griesham,	John W. Cox,	Chas. T. Cox,	Luther G. Mitchell
Tom C. Garner,	Robert H. Holt,	Curb C. Dunivant,	Lawson E. Dunivant,
Hoyt Williamson,	John G. Sandlin,	Richard E. Durham,
Charlie Taylor,	Sam E. Kennemer,	Samuel R. Clanton,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Olin M. Edmundson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
T. C. McCormack was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

Witness this 9 day of March, 1937 R. D. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Edie Jones, James D. Bullington, Roy F. Horton and Chas. T. Mitchell

R. D. Turrentine, Sheriff.
By J. D. Bullington, D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Roy Whitte, James O. Rochell, Wiley E. Lunsford, Chas. T. McNairy and Garland Smith

And it appearing to the Court that;

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Wm E. Brundson,	Frank M. Long,	T. Luther Glass,	W. Frank Fielding,
Malcolm C. Grisham,	John A. Cox,	Chas. T. Cox,	Luther O. Mitchell

Witness this 9th day of March, 19 2 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Odie Jones,
James D. Bullington,
Roy P. Norton,
Wm. F. Mitchell,

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Roy Whitt,
James G. Rochell,
Ripley M. Luneford,
Chas. O. McEniry
Garland Smith
And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Olin M. Edmundson,	Frank M. Fogg,	J. Luther Glaze,	W. Frank Fielding,
Malcolm C. Grisham,	John W. Cox,	Chas. T. Cox,	Luther G. Mitchell,

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 9th day of March, 1932 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Odie Jones, James D. Bullington, Roy P. Norton and Wm. F. Mitchell

A. I. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Welden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

- Roy Whitt,
  - James G. Rochell,
  - Ripley M. Lunsford,
  - Chas. O. McNiry,
  - Garland Smith
- And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

- |                     |                  |                    |                     |

A. I. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Welliden, D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Harry J. Kittrell, David A. Hazelwood, Merrett Compton, Will G. Robinson, James H. Holt,
Emmett B. Ferguson, Carlos J. Boyd, Ed. T. Gray, Jr., and Wm. J. Howard.

And it appearing to the Court that;

~~Ernest B. Ferguson, Carlos J. Boyd, Ed. T. Gray, Jr., and Wm. J. Howard.~~
A. Barton Broadway

A. T. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. T. Holliden, D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Harry J. Kittrell, David A. Hazelwood, Merrett Compton, Will G. Robinson, James H. Holt,
Ernest B. Ferguson, Carlos J. Boyd, Ed. T. Gray, Jr., and Wm. J. Howard.

And it appearing to the Court that;

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Chas. H. Long.	Leo Harrgrove,	John C. Bullington,	Rock H. Bullington,
John D. Clem,	George G. Moran,	Harvey D. Poteste,	Farris T. Dodd,

Witness this 24th day of April, 1933. B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones and Herbert W. Norton

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell-Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Wales,	Thos. F. Johnson,
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	Tom J. Evans,	Vester Leonard
Sewel Newby,	W. Lee Weatherford,	W. Tollie McLemore,	Max W. Hudson
Luther Lock,	Hollis G. Ingram,	Milton W. Hayes,
William Clements,	Alvie Durham,	John W. Moore,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, L. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 1933 B. B. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. T. Baker, Sheriff.
J. E. Veldren, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max H. Rossman, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones and Herbert J. Norton

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Wales,	Thos. F. Johnson,
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	Tom J. Evans,	Vester Leonard
Genel Newby,	W. Lee Weatherford,	W. Tollie McLemore,	Max W. Hudson
Luther Lock,	Hollie G. Ingram,	Wilton W. Hayes,
William Clements,	Alvie Purham,	John W. Moore,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, L. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 1923 B. S. Turrentine
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Clerk Circuit Court.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff
J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones and Herbert W. Horton.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Wales,	Thos. F. Johnson,
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	Tom J. Evans,	Vester Leonard
Sewel Newby,	W. Lee Weatherford,	W. Tolly McLeMore,	Max W. Hudson,
Luther Lock,	Hollis G. Ingram,	Milton W. Hayes,
William Clements,	Alvie Durham,	John W. Moore,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, L. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. E. Welden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max W. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones and Herbert W. Norton

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert, Fred Black, W. Luther Wales, Thos. F. Johnson,
Occor Vinson, Howard Hobbs, Tom J. Evans, Vester Leonard

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 1930
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

B. S. Turrentine

Clerk Circuit Court.

A. L. Baker

, Sheriff.

J. B. Velden

, D. S.

Max W. Rossenau, Roger L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy J. Laughriller, Claud Jones and Herbert W. Norton

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert, Fred Black, W. Luther Sales, Thos. S. Johnson,
Oscar Vinson, Howard Hobbs, Tom J. Evans, Vester Leonard
Cecil Newby, W. Lee Featherford, W. Tolly McLenore, Max T. Hudson, Luther Lock, Hollie O. Ingram, Wilton W. Hays,
William Clements, Alvie Durham, John B. Moore,

L. Nell Gilbert

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 13 day of October, 1932
B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
A. Warten Broadway

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Wellden, D. S.

- Harry J. Kittrell,
David A. Hazelwood,
Herrett Compton,
Will G. Robinson,
James H. Holt,
- Emmett B. Ferguson,
Carlos J. Boyd,
Ed T. Gray, Jr.,
Wm. J. Howard

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

- Chas. H. Long,
John D. Clem,
John B. Evans,
Lawrence Cole,

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 19 33 S. J. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. I. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Wallden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

- Max E. Rosenau,
Edgar L. Smith,
Wallace C. Coleman,
Roy L. Laughmiller,
Claude Jones.
- Herbert W. Norton

And it appearing to the Court that;

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

- L. Nell Gilbert,
Oscar Vinson,
Sewel Newby,
Luther Lock,
William Clements,
- Fred Black,

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this ~~24th~~ day of ~~April~~, 19 ~~33~~ 3. 3. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. T. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Falden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

- Max E. Rozenau,
Edgar L. Smith,
Wallace C. Coleman,
Roy L. Faughmiller,
Claud Jones,
- Herbert W. Norton
- And it appearing to the Court that;

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

- L. Nell Oilbert,
Oscar Vinson,
Gewel Herby,
Luther Cook,
William Clements,
- Tred Black,
Howard Hobbs,
W. Lee Weatherford,
Hollie G. Ingram,
Alvie Durham,
- W. Luther Folen,
Tom J. Evans,
W. Tolly McQuire,
Wilton W. Hayes,
John W. Moore
- Thos. F. Johnson,
Vester Leonard
Max W. Hudson

L. Nell Oilbert
Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court,.....was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
.....was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon:
Witness this 24th day of April, 1935. B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker Sheriff.
J. B. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

H. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones and
Herbert W. Norton

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless..... appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Wales,	Thos. F. Johnson,
Er Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	Tom J. Evans,	Vester Leonard
El Newby,	W. Lee Weatherford,	W. Tolly McLeMORE,	Max W. Hudson
er Lock,	Hollis G. Ingram,	Milton W. Hayes,
lian Clements,	Alvie Durham,	John W. Moore,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, L. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

Witness this 24th day of April, 1933

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

B. S. Turrentine

Clerk Circuit Court.

A. L. Baker

Sheriff.

J. E. Welden

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Herbert W. Norton

Edgar L. Smith,

Wallace C. Coleman,

Roy L. Laughmiller,

Claud Jones,

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ )

unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert, Fred Black, W. Luther Wales, Thos. F. Johnson,

Oscar Vinson, Howard Hobbs, Tom J. Evans, Vester Leonard

Sewel Newby, W. Lee Weatherford, W. Tolly McLeamore, Max W. Hudson

William Clements, Alvie Durham, John W. Moore

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, L. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. E. Welden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

- Max F. Rosenau,
- Herbert W. Norton
- Edgar L. Smith,
- Wallace G. Coleman,
- Roy L. Laughmiller,
- Claud Jones,

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

- L. Nell Gilbert,
- Fred Black,
- W. Luther Talco,
- Thos. F. Johnson,
- Oscar Vinson,
- Howard Hobbs,
- Tom J. Evans,
- Vester Leonard
- Sevel Newby,
- W. Lee Weatherford,
- W. Tolly McLenore,
- Max W. Hudson
- Luther Lock,
- Hollie O. Ingram,
- Eilton W. Hayes
- William Clements,
- Alvie Durhan,
- John T. Moore

L. Nell Gilbert

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Donnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

A. T. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. V. Welden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Sam E. Hadden, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace G. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones, and Herbert W. Norton.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as..... who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....) unless..... appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

W. Bell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Sales,	Thos. F. Johnson,
Osceola Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	Tom J. Evans,	Vester Leonard,
Revel Kirby,	W. Lee Weatherford,	T. Polly Holmore,	Max W. Hudson
Luther Leeb,	Hollis G. Ingram,	Wilton W. Hayes,
William Clements,	Alvie Durham,	John W. Moore,

J. Bell Gilbert

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court.....was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Clerk Circuit Court.

A. T. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. W. Welden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max H. Rosenau, Wiger L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy T. Laughmiller, Claud Jones, and Herbert W. Norton,

And it appearing to the Court that;

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless..... appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Sales,	Theo. F. Johnson,
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	Tom J. Evans,	Vester Leonard,

Witness this 24th day of April, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. H. Welden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones, and Herbert W. Norton,

And it appearing to the Court that;

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

- L. Nell Gilbert,

Oscar Vinson,

Sewel Newby,

Luther Lock,

William Clements,
- Fred Black,

Howard Hobbs,

W. Lee Weatherford,

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Welden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones, and
Herbert W. Norton,

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Wales,	Thos. F. Johnson,
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	Tom J. Evans,	Vester Leonard,
Sewel Newby,	W. Lee Weatherford,	W. Tolly McLemore,	Max W. Hudson
William Clements,	Alvie Durham,	John W. Moore,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, L. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA,
Limestone County.

CIRCUIT COURT.

JANUARY TERM, 33

- The Grand Jury of said County charge that before the finding of this indictment
1. James Hargrove and Jim Sampson with intent to steal broke into and entered the shop, store, warehouse or other building of Pink Rolin, in which goods, merchandise or clothing, things of value were kept for use, sale or deposit,
  2. The Grand Jury of said County further charges that before the finding of this indictment James Hargrove and Jim Sampson did buy, receive, conceal, or aid in concealing fifty-six pounds of meat, four and one half pounds of sausage, four cans of hominy, four cans of baking powder, five cans of corn, two cans of peaches, one can of jelly, seven sacks of flour, one bolt of silk cloth, one bolt of silk, seven bolts of outing, and a quantity of meat, lard, canned goods, and dry goods, any further description of which is to the grand jury unknown, of the value of sixty-five dollars, the personal property of Pink Rolin, knowing that it was stolen and not having the intent to restore it to the owner

Witness this 24th day of April, 19____ B. S. Turrentine
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Clerk Circuit Court.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Volden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max K. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Touchmiller, Cloud Jones and Herbert W. Norton,

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as..... who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....) unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Wales,	Thos. F. Johnson,
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	Tom J. Evans,	Vester Leonard
Samuel Newby	W. Lee Weatherford,	W. Tolly McLawrence,	Max W. Hudson

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones and Herbert W. Norton,

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Wales,	Thos. F. Johnson,
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	Tom J. Evans,	Vester Leonard

Witness this 24th day of April, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones and Herbert W. Norton,

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Wales,	Thos. F. Johnson,
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	Tom J. Evans,	Vester Leonard
Sewel Newby	W. Lee Weatherford,	W. Tolly McLemore,	Max W. Hudson
Luther Lock,	Hollis G. Ingram,	Milton W. Hayes,
William Clements,	Alvie Durham,	John W. Moore,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, L. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

Witness this 24th day of April, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Clerk Circuit Court.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Wellen, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones and Herbert W. Norton

And it appearing to the Court that;

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

- L. Nell Gilbert
Oscar Vinson,
Gewel Newby,
Luther Lock

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 1933. B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones and
Herbert W. Norton

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____)
unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert	Fred Black	W. Luther Wales,	Thos. F. Johnson
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	Tom J. Evans,	Vester Leonard
Sewel Newby,	W. Lee Weatherford,	W. Tolly McLeMore,	Max W. Hudson,
Luther Lock	Hollis G. Ingram,	Milton W. Hayes
William Clements,	Alvie Durham	John W. Moore

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, L. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. _____
Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 19 33 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. B. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Herbert W. Norton
Edgar L. Smith,
Wallace G. Coleman,
Roy L. Laughmiller,
Claud Jones and

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Wales	Thos. F. Johnson,
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	Tom J. Evans,	Vester Leonard,
Sewel Newby	W. Lee Weatherford,	W. Tolly McEmore	Max W. Hudson,
Luther Lock,	Hollis G. Ingram	Milton W. Hayes,
William Clements,	Alvie Durham,	John W. Moore,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, J. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 8th day of October, 19 30 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Sam G. Kay, Frank L. Nickles, J. C. Williams, Wm. J. Kimbrough, Ruben T. Baugh, Omer H. Hill and E. F. Bullington.

J. E. Clem, Jr., Sheriff.
_____, D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Merret Compton, James D. Elliott, Wm. R. Black, Lee A. Smith, E. D. Lerman and
Wm. Dale Holt.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____)
unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lawson M. Baugher, Wm. S. Garrett, K. D. Holt, Henry Tatum, Hassie H. Robinson,
R. P. Dupree, P. W. Ball, T. J. Evans, Loel S. Nabors, Clarence White, Lexie Lipscomb, G. Richard Harper, John C. Beasley, Ollie McGrue, Huston T. Hardison, Frank T. Richardson,

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

P. W. Hendricks, Jr., Luke L. Rogers,
Earl Phillips, Effie L. Brooks,
Ernest C. Douthit,
Isom T. Woodfin,
Henry B. Zeitler,
And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ )
unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

William G. Martin,	J. Belt Cole,	John T. Griggs,	Macon Pugh,

Witness this 9th day of March, 1932

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Odie Jones, James D. Bullington, Roy P. Norton and Wm. F. Mitchell

By J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

~~Strickland~~ Roy Whitt, James G. Rochell, Ripley M. Lunsford, Chas. O. McNiry and Garland Smith.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ )

unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Olin M. Edmundson, Frank M. Fogg, J. Luther Glaze, W. Frank Fielding,

Malcolm C. Grisham, John W. Cox, Chas. T. Cox, Luther G. Mitchell,

Tom C. Garner, Robert H. Holt, Curb C. Dunnivant, Lawson E. Dunnivant.

Hoyt Williamson, John G. Sandlin, Richard E. Durham,

Charlie Taylor, Sam E. Kennemer, Samuel R. Clanton,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Olin M. Edmundson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

T. C. McCormack was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

Witness this 13th day of October, 19 32 B. S. Turrentine
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Clerk Circuit Court.

A. Warten Broadway

A. L. BAKER, Sheriff.
BY J. E. WELLDEN, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Harry J. Kittrell, Emmett B. Ferguson,
David A. Hazelwood, Carlos J. Boyd,
Merrett Compson, Ed T. Gray, Jr., and
Will G. Robinson, Wm. J. Howard
James E. Holt,
And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Chas. H. Long, Leo Hargrove, John C. Bullington, Mack R. Bullington,
John D. Clem, George W. Moran, Massey D. Poteete, Farris T. Dodd and
John B. Evans, Walter M. Gordon, Thomas E. Hatchett, Geo. M. Witty
Lawrence Cole, Luther Hicks, Raymond Fogg,
Gurlin H. Griffin, Arthur Vasser Jewett E. Johnston,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Elsou Burns was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 15th day of October, 1900 B. B. Turrentine
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 00 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
A. Marten Broadway
Clerk Circuit Court.

By J. D. [unclear], Sheriff.
J. D. [unclear], D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

- Harry J. Kittrell,
David S. Barlowood,
Herrett Campson,
Will G. Robinson,
James B. Holt,
- Timothy B. Ferguson,
Carlton J. Boyd,
Ed T. Gray, Jr., and
Wm. J. Howard

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

- Chas. H. Long,
John D. Clem,
John D. Evans,
Lawrence Cole,
Gurlin H. Griffin,
- Geo Hargrove,
George W. Woran,
Walter M. Gordon,
Arthur Hicks,
Arthur Tagger
- John C. Dullington,
Massey B. Motteato,
Thomas B. Hatchett,
Raymond Fogg,
Jewett E. Johnston,
- Jack B. Dullington,
Harris B. Todd and
Geo. H. Gitty

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Leon Burno was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 13th day of October, 1932 B. G. TURNTINE
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
A. Warten Broadway

L. BAKER, Sheriff.
BY J. B. GLENN, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

- Harry J. Kittrell
David A. Hazelwood,
Merrett Compton
Will C. Robinson
James E. Holt
- Emmett B. Ferguson
Carlos J. Boyd,
Ed T. Gray, Jr. and
Wm. J. Howard
- And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ )
unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

- Chas. H. Long
John D. Clem,
John B. Evans,
Lawrence Cole,
Gurlin H. Griffin,
- Leo Hargrove,
George W. Moran,
Walter M. Gordon,

Arthur Vasser,
- John C. Bullington,
Massey D. Poteste,
Thomas E. Hatchett
Raymond Fogg,
Jewett E. Johnston,
- Mack T. Bullington,
Farrie T. Dodd and
Geo. M. Witty,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.

By J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Harry J. Kittrell

David A. Hazelwood,

Merrett Compton,

Will G. Robinson,

James E. Holt

And it appearing to the Court that;

Emmett B. Ferguson

Carlos J. Boyd

Wm. J. Howard

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ )

unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Chas. H. Long,

John D. Clem,

John B. Evans,

Lawrence Cole,

Gurlin H. Griffin,

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 18th day of October, 1932. C. B. TOBENTINE
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Clerk Circuit Court.
A. Herten Broadway

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. M. Elden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

- Harry J. Kittrell
- David A. Homelwood,
- Herrett Compton,
- Will O. Robinson,
- James B. Holt
- Jewett B. Ferguson
- Charles J. Boyd
- Ed T. Gray, Jr., and
- Wm. J. Howard

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

- Chas. H. Long,
- John B. Clem,
- John B. Evans,
- Lawrence Cole,
- Gurlin H. Griffin,
- Leo Hargrove,
- George H. Moran
- Walter H. Gordon,
- Luther Hicks,
- Arthur Vasser,
- John C. Bullington,
- Mosey B. Poteste,
- Thomas B. Hatchett
- Raymond Fogg,
- Jewett B. Johnston,
- Jack A. Bullington
- Farris T. Dodd and
- Geo. H. Witty

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Elson Burns was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 15th day of October, 1930, B. S. TURRENTINE
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
A. Barton Broadway Clerk Circuit Court.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Harry J. Kittrell, Emmett B. Ferguson,
David A. Hazelwood, Carlos J. Boyd,
Herrett Compton, Ed T. Gray, Jr., and
Will G. Robinson, Wm. J. Howard
James B. Holt
And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Chas. H. Long, Leo Hargrove, John C. Dullington, Mack R. Bullington, John D. Clem, George W. Moran, Massey D. Pettsco, Farris T. Mott and

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 13th day of October, 19 32 B. S. TURRENTINE
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. Warten Broadway

A. L. BAKER, Sheriff.
BY J. E. WELLDEN, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Harry J. Kittrell	Emmett B. Ferguson,
David A. Hazelwood,	Carlos J. Boyd,
Merrett Compton,	Ed T. Gray, Jr., and
Will G. Robinson	Wm. J. Howard
James E. Holt

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Chas. H. Long,	Leo Hargrove,	John C. Bullington,	Mack R. Bullington,
John D. Clem,	George W. Moran,	Massey D. Poteete,	Farris T. Dodd and
John B. Evans,	Walter M. Gordon,	Thomas E. Hatchett	Geo. M. Witty,
Lawrence Cole,	Luther Hicks,	Raymond Fogg,
Gurlin H. Griffin,	Arthur Vasser,	Jewett E. Johnston,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
Elson Burns was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones and Herbert W. Norton,

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert, Fred Black, W. Luther Wales, Tom J. Evans, Oscar Vinson, Howard Hobbs, W. Tolly McLeMore, Milton W. Hayes,

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 19 33 D. B. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of all Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. B. Liddon, D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Max E. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wilcox C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claude Jones and Herbert W. Horton,

And it appearing to the Court that;

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

E. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Dale,	Tom J. Evans,
Oscar Vincon,	Howard Hobbs,	W. Tolly McLenore,	Hilton C. Hayes,
Samuel Newby,	W. Lee Weatherford,	John W. Moore,	Thos. F. Johnson,
Luther Lock,	Hollis G. Ingram	Vester Leonard
William Clements,	Alvin Alvin Barham	Max W. Hudson

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, E. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 1933. B. S. TURRENTINE
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of all Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones and Herbert W. Norton,

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as..... who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....) unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Wales,	Tom J. Evans,
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	W. Tolly McLemore,	Milton W. Hayes,
Sewel Newby,	W. Lee Weatherford,	John W. Moore,	Thos. F. Johnson,
Luther Lock,	Hollis G. Ingram,	Vester Leonard,
William Clements,	Alvie Durham,	Max W. Hudson

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, L. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 1933. B. J. THOMPSON
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of all Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. M. Hilden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max H. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Cloud Jones and Herbert W. Norton.

And it appearing to the Court that;

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Hale,	Tom J. Evans,
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs,	W. Tolly McAnore,	Milton W. Hayes,

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of.....all.....Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

.....A. L. Baker....., Sheriff.
.....By.....J. E. Wellden....., D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Iaughmiller, Claud Jones and
Herbert W. Norton,

And it appearing to the Court that ;

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of all Jurors on all of the within named persons ~~except~~:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
By J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claud Jones and Herbert W. Norton,

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Nell Gilbert,	Fred Black,	W. Luther Wales,	Tom J. Evans
Oscar Vinson,	Howard Hobbs	W. Tolly McLeMore	Hilton W. Hayes
Sewel Newby	W. Lee Weatherford	John W. Moore,	Thos. F. Johnson,
Luther Lock,	Hollis G. Ingram,	Vester Leonard,
William Clements,	Alvie Durham,	Max W. Hudson,

L. Nell Gilbert
Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court,.....was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
Bonnie Webb.....was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

By J. B. Weldon, Sheriff.
J. B. Weldon, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Max H. Rosenau, Edgar C. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy C. Buchmiller, Claude Jones and Herbert W. Horton.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

J. Neil Gilbert, Fred Black, C. Luther Cole, Tom G. Evans
Cesar Vinson, Howard Hobbs, A. Tolly McLenore, Milton W. Hayes

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except Clerk Circuit Court.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin and Leonard Wells

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

- Lucian B. Grubbs,
Lee L. Peace,
Henry J. Fusch
Walter F. Gordon,
Carlos O. Brackeen,
- Ellis Meals,
George R. Rochell,

Owen Miller
- Richard P. Roberts,
Mason C. Freeman,
Wash Jones
Buel Owens,
- Brentz Pepper,
G. Isaiah Terry,
Thomas G. Williamson
Larkin Adams

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Thos. G. Williamson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
George H. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 1933 B. J. Turrentino
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except Clerk Circuit Court.

A. A. Baker, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Richard J. Ray, John P. Peigle, William G. Martin and Leonard Ellis

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

Lucian D. Grubbs,	Ellis Yoalo,	Richard P. Roberts,	Wrents Pepper,
Leo L. Ponce,	George R. Rochell,	Jason C. Freeman,	G. Lonish Terry,
Henry J. Fusch	J. Ed. Legg	Nash Jones	Thomas G. Williamson
Walter T. Gordon,	Earl Davis	Lucl Owens,	Markin Adams
Charles O. Brackeen,	Owen Miller

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Thos. G. Williamson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. _____
George H. Binford. was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 19 33 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin and Leonard Wells

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian B. Gruggs,	Ellis Meals,	Richard P. Roberts,	Brentz Pepper,
Lee L. Peace,	Geo. R. Rochell,	Mason C. Freeman,	G. Isaiah Terry
Henry J. Fusch	J. Ed. Legg,	Wash Jones	Thomas G. Williamson
Walter F. Gordon,	Earl Davis	Buel Owens	Larkin Adams
Carlos O. Brackeen,	Owen Miller

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Thos. G. Williamson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. George H. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

_____, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

Richard J. Ray, John A. Smith, William H. G. Smith and Edward Miller

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lee L. Ponce,	John A. Smith,	John L. Smith,	William H. G. Smith
Henry J. Busch	Carl Davis	Carl Davis	Edward Miller
Volter F. Gordon,	Carl Davis	Carl Davis	Carl Davis
Carlton S. D. Smith,	John Miller	John Miller	John Miller

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. _____ was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 1933, J. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except

W. S. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Peuple, William G. Martin, and Leonard Wells.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian D. Grubbs, Ellis Meale, Richard P. Roberts, Trents Pepper
Les E. Peace, George D. McNeill, Leon C. Freeman, G. Isaiah Terry,
Henry J. Busch J. Ed. Ford, Cash Jones, Thomas G. Williamson
Walter E. Gordon, Earl Davis, Duol Owens,
Carlos O. Brackeen, Owen Miller,

Thos. G. Williamson

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. George H. Linford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 1933. B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin, and Leonard Wells.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian B. Grubbs, Ellis Meals, Richard P. Roberts, Brentz Pepper
Lee L. Peace, George R. Rochell, Mason C. Freeman, G. Isaiah Terry,
Henry J. Fusch, J. Ed. Legg Wash Jones Thomas G. Williamson
Walter F. Gordon, Earl Davis, Buel Owens,
Carlos O. Brackeen, Owen Miller,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Thos. G. Williamson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. George H. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 19 33 H. G. TURRENTINE
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons ~~and~~

A. J. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin, and Leonard Wells

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian B. Grubbs, Ellis Meale, Richard P. Roberts, Brentz Pepper
Lee L. Peace, George R. Rochell, Mason C. Freeman, G. Isaiah Terry,
Henry J. Fusch J. Ed. Legg, Wash Jones, Thomas G. Williamson
Walter F. Gordon, Earl Davis, Euel Owens,
Carlos O. Brackeen, Owen Miller,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Thos. G. Williamson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
George H. Sinfard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 4th day of March, 19 30 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 87 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Robert T. Clem, J. A. Lovell, William A. Taylor, William A. Haden, Frank Culps, Lonnie W. Sweetland, John W. Steward, Jr., Robt. G. Fogg, Marvin W. Becham, Iakin C.
Tucker, H. C. Campbell, Andrew J. Matthews, Clarence E. Dodson.

J. E. Clem, Jr., Sheriff.
D. S.

James L. Jones, E. P. Tillery, Earnest E. Hodson, R. Harry Walker, C. A. Harrison,
C. M. Hicks, Jonnie Adams, B. V. Holt, W. H. Nelson, Jim H. Easter, Chase L. Nabors, James G. Rochell, Walton Gray, Floyd J. Black, Ronald D. Gray, W. Earnest Willis,
Grady Davis and Chas. O. McEniry

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

John C. Batts,	Bob L. Christopher,	John Todd,	Huston Jones,
Richard E. Durham,	T. Sid Fogg,	Geo. S. Batts,	Homer F. Dunnivant,
Geo. W. Moran,	Robert Graham,	Lewis D. Bates,	G.W.Thornton,
Carlie D. White,	Wm. E. McLemore,	Robert C. Bibb,
W. Straud Norton,	Hollis G. Ingram,	Ed Parker,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, John C. Batts was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
C. W. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons Clerk Circuit Court.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin, Leonard Wells,

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____)
unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian B. Grubbs, Ellis Meale, Richard P. Roberts, Brentz Pepper,
Lee L. Peace, George R. Rochell, Mason C. Freeman, G. Isaiah Terry,
Henry M J. Fusch, J. Ed. Legg, Wash Jones, Thomas G. Williamson
Walter F. Gordon, Earl Davis, Buel Owens,
Carlos O. Brackeen, Owen Miller,

Thos. G. Williamson

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. _____
George H. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 8th day of October, 19 33 D. S. TURBENTINE
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Clerk Circuit Court.

A. L. DUBB, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Richard J. Ray, John D. Spoigle, William G. Martin, and Leonard Wells

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
Lucian B. Grubbs, Ellis Beale, Richard P. Roberts, Dwight Pepper, Leo T. Peace, George E. Rochell, Edmon C. Freeman, G. Isaiah Terry,

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 19 33 D. B. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons ~~except~~

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

Richard J. Ray, John W. Speigle, William G. Martin, and Leonard Wells,

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian D. Grubbs, Ellis Woot, Richard P. Roberts, Irentz Popper,
Lee L. Peace, George B. Rochell, Elson C. Freeman, C. Isaiah Torry, Henry J. Busch, J. Ed Lott, Wash Jones, Thos. C. Williamson, Walter F. Gordon, Earl Davis, Duel Owens,
Carlos O. Brackeen, Owen Miller,

Thos. C. Williamson

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. George H. Siniaro was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons ~~except~~ Clerk Circuit Court.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin, and Leonard Wells,

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian B. Grubbs, Ellis Meals, Richard P. Roberts, Brentz Pepper,
Lee L. Peace, George R. Rochell, Mason C. Freeman, G. Isaiah Terry,
Henry J. Fusch, J. Ed Legg, Wash Jones, Thos. G. Williamson,
Walter F. Gordon, Earl Davis, Buel Owens,
Carlos O. Brackeen, Owen Miller,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Thos. G. Williamson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. George H. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

Witness this 5th day of October, 1933

B. S. Turrentine

Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker

Sheriff.

D. S.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin, and Leonard Wells

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as..... who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....) unless..... appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucien B. Grubbs, Ellis Means, Richard P. Roberts, Brentz Pepper,
Lee L. Peace, George R. Rochell, Mason C. Freeman, G. Isiah Terry,
Henry J. Fusch, J. Ed Legg, Wash Jones, Thos.G.Williamson,
Walter F. Gordon, Earl Davis, Euel Owens,
Carlos O. Brackeen, Owen Miller,

Thos. G. Williamson

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court,..... was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....

George H. Siniard

was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

Witness this 5th day of October, 1933

B. S. Turrentine

Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except

A. L. Baker

Sheriff.

D. S.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin, and Leonard Wells

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

unless the sum of ($) appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian B. Grubbs,	Ellis Meals,	Richard P. Roberts,	Brentz Pepper,
Lee L. Peace,	Geo. R. Rochell,	Mason C. Freeman,	G. Isaiah Terry,
Henry J. Fusch	J. Ed Legg,	Wash Jones,	Thos.G.Williamson,
Walter F. Gordon,	Earl Davis,	Buel Owens,
Carlos O. Brackeen,	Owen Miller,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Thos. G. Williamson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

George H. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 1933 D. S. Turrentine
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Clerk Circuit Court.

A. B. Baker, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.
Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William C. Martin, and Leonard Walle

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
Lucian D. Grubbs, Ellis Henle, Richard P. Roberts, Brents Pepper,
Lee L. Peace, Geo. E. Nicholl, Mason C. Freeman, G. Isaiah Perry, Henry J. Fusch, J. Ed Jones, Nash Jones, Theo. G. Williamson, Volter F. Gordon, Earl Davis, Duol Weno,
Carlos C. Brackeen, Owen Miller,
Theo. G. Williamson
Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. _____
George H. Lillard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 1933. B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons ~~seventy~~

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin, and Leonard Walls

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian B. Grubbs, Ellis Moals, Richard P. Roberts, Brentz Pepper,
Lee L. Peace, Geo. R. Rochell, Mason C. Freeman, G. Isaiah Terry,
Henry J. Fusch, J. Ed Legg, Wash Jones, Thos. G. Williamson,
Walter F. Gordon, Earl Davis, Euel Owens,
Carlos O. Brackeen, Owen Miller,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Thos. G. Williamson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. _____
George H. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA,

Witness this 5th day of October, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin, Leonard Wells

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian B. Grubbs,	Ellis Meals,	Richard P. Roberts,	Brentz Pepper,
Lee L. Peace,	Geo. R. Rochell,	Mason C. Freeman,	G. Isaiah Terry,
Henry J. Fusch	J. Ed Legg,	Wash Jones,	Thos.G.Williamson
Walter F. Gordon,	Earl Davis,	Buel Owens,
Carlos O. Brackeen,	Owen Miller,

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Thos. G. Williamson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. George H. Sinfard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

Witness this 5th day of October, 1933 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons

W. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Spiggle, William C. Martin, Leonard Wells

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian B. Grubbs, Ellis Heals, Richard F. Roberts, Brents Pepper,

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 1933. B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons ~~except~~

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin, Leonard Wells

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ )
unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian B. Grubbs, Ellis Meale, Richard P. Roberts, Brentz Pepper,
Lee L. Peace Geo. R. Rochell, Mason C. Freeman, G. Isaiah Terry
Henry J. Busch J. Ed Legg, Wash Jones Thos. G. Williamson,
Walter F. Gordon, Earl Davis, Buel Owens,
Carlos O. Brackeen, Owen Miller,

Thos. G. Williamson

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
George H. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 26th day of April, 1934, 1934 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John R. Holt and Wvie G. Hall

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Edmond P. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe S. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Earnest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Roland Worthy, David R. Coffman, Rubin H. Patterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leorand F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blakely, Robert L. Gray, Charles C. Varnell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Laxon, T. Disler Copeland, George W. Brown, Tollie C. Smith, Ransom E. Keeton, J. M. (Bud) Sartin and John H. Brakefield

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, John H. Brakefield was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. _____ Donnel Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 26th day of April, 1934, 1934
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John E. Holt and Wm E. Hall

A. F. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Edmond P. Garrett, Hollis E. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer E. Bunivant, Joe B. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Roland Northy, Edid . . . , Robin W. Patterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leorand T. aniel, Walter Brooks, Luther J. Blacely, Robert L. Gray, Charles . . . Varnell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry . . . , T. . . . , George . . . Brown, Collie . . . Smith, . . . . . J. E. (Bud) Martin and John W. Drakefield.

John W. Drakefield

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete, were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 26th day of April, 1934 B. S. Turrentine Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John R. Holt and Ovie G. Hall

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Edmond P. Garrett	Hollis B. Boston	Nelson W. Hendricks
Homer F. Dunivant	Joe S. McDonald	Wm. Wallace Barber
J. G. Rochell	Ernest Holland

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Roland Worthy	David R. Coffman	Rubin H. Patterson
Herman Boyd	Kirby Lee Johnson	Leonard F. Daniel
Elmer Brooks	Luther J. Blakely,	Robert L. Gray
Charles C. Varnell	Wm. E. Roberts	Henry Taxon
T. Disler Copeland,	George W. Brown,	Tollie C. Smith Ransom
		L. Keeton, J. E. (Bud) Sartin

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, John H. Brakefield was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 26th day of April, 1934 B. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John R. Holt and Ovie G. Hall

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Edmond P. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe S. McDonald, Wm Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Earnest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Roland Worthy, David R. Coffman, Rubin H. Patterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blakely, Robert L. Gray, Charles C. Varnell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Laxon, T. Disler Copeland, George W. Brown, Tollie C. Smith, Ransom E. Keeton, J. M. (Bud) Sartin and John H. Brakefield

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, John H. Brakefield was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 20th day of April, 1944 N. J. Turrentine Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John F. Holt and Evie C. Hall

W. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

Edmond L. Martin, Hollis B. Houston, Nelson L. Kinnick, Homer F. Martin, Joe S. McDonald, Wm Wallace Barber, J. W. Rochell and Earnest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

John H. Drakefield

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 20th day of April, 19 34 B. S. Turrentien
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John H. Holt and Eric G. Hall

A. T. Baker, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Edmond T. Garrett, Nellie B. Denton, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant
Joe B. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Holand Worthy, David R. Coffman, Rubin H. Patterson, Herman Doyd, Clirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blankely, Robert L. +
Gray, Charles C. Varnell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Jaxon, E. Elmer Copeland, George W. Brown, Tollie C. Smith, Watson W. Keeton, J. K. (Dud) Martin and
John H. Drakefield

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, John H. Drakefield was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. _____ Donnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 28th day of April, 1934 E. S. Turrentine
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 68 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John R. Holt and Orvie G. Hall

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Edmond P. Garrett, Hollis E. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Duniwnt, Joe S. McDonald, William Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Roland Worthy, David R. Coffman, Rubin H. Patterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blakely, Robert L. Gray, Charles C. Varnell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Laxon, T. Elmer Copeland, George W. Brown, Tollie C. Smith, Benson E. Keeton, J. H. (Bud) Martin and John H. Brakefield

John H. Brakefield
Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court.....was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
Donald Webb.....was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Edmond P. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe S. McDonald, William Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as..... who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....) unless..... appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Roland Worthy, David R. Coffman, Rubin H. Patterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blakely, Robert L. Gray, Charles C. Varnell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Laxon, T. Disler Copeland, George W. Brown, Tollie C. Smith, Ransom E. Keeton, J. M. (Bud) Sartin and John H. Brakefield

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, John H. Brakefield was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of.....65.....Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Clerk Circuit Court.
John R. Holt and Ovie G. Hall

A. L. Baker....., Sheriff.
....., D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Edmond F. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson J. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant
Joe S. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Roland Worthy, David R. Coffman, Rubin H. Matterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee
Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blakely, Robert L. Gray, Charles C. Varnell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Laxon, T. Disley Comeland, George
Brown, Tollie C. Smith, Ransom S. Keeton, J. M. (Dad) Gartin and John H.
Brakefield

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court,.....John H. Brakefield.....was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
Bonnie Webb.....was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 13 day of October, 1932 B2 S. TURRENTINE Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
A. Warten Broadway

Wade A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Harry J. Kitzell, David A. Hazelwood, Merrett Compton, Will G. Robinson, James H. Holt, Emmett B. Ferguson, Carlos J. Boyd, Ed T. Gray, and Wm J. Howard

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Chas. H. Long, John D. Clem, John B. Evans, Lawrence Cole, Gurlin H. Griffin, Leo Hargrove, George W. Moran, Walter H. Gordon, Luther Hicks, Arthur Vassar, John C. Bullington, Massey D. Feteete, Thomas E. Hatchett, Raymond Fogg, Jewett E. Johnston, Mack R. Bullington, Harris T. Dodd and Geo. H. Witty

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Elson Burns was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 19 33 B. S. TURRETTINE
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Clerk Circuit Court.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. E. Wellden, D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Max M. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller
Claud Jones, and Herbert W. Norton

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless..... appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
L. Nell Gilbert, Oscar Vinson, Sewell Newby, Walter Locky, William Miller,
Clarence Lee, Fred Elder, Howard Foster, W. Lee Weatherford, Hollis G. Ingram, Alvie Durham, W. Luther Vales, Tom, J. Evans, W. Tolly McLemore, Milton
W. Hayes, John W. Moore, Thos. F. Johnson, Vester Leonard and Max W. Hudson.

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, L. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....
Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 34th day of April, 19 33 D. S. TORRENTINE Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. H. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Max H. Hecenas, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Lerman, Ray L. Laughmiller
Claud Jones, and Herbert W. Norton

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless..... appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

L. Neil Gilbert, Oscar Vinson, Jewel Newby, Luther Leck, William
Clements, Fred Black, Howard Hobbs, W. Lee Weatherford, Hollie G. Ingram, Alvie Furman, J. Luther Sales, Tom J. Evans, W. Tolly McLemore, Milton
W. Hayes, John W. Moore, Max P. Johnson, Victor Leonard and Max W. Hudson.

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, L. Neil Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Witness this 5th day of October, 1933. B. S. TURRENTINE
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin and Leonard Wells

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Lucian B. Grubbs, Ellis Meale, Richard P. Roberts, Brentz Pepper, Lee L. Peace,

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of October, 1933 B. S. TURRENTINE
Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
Richard J. Ray, John D. Speigle, William G. Martin and Leonard Wells

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____)
unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
Lucian B. Grubbs, Ellis Meale, Richard P. Roberts, Brentz Pepper, Lee L. Peace,
George R. Rochell, Mason C. Freeman, G. Isaiah Terry, Henry, Fusch, J. Ed. Legg, Vash
Jones, Thomas G. Williamson, Waters F. Gordon, Earl Davis, Buel Owens, Larkin Adams, Carlos O. Brackeen and Owen Miller

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, Thomas G. Williamson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. _____
George H. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 13th day of October, 1932 B. S. Turrentine
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Clerk Circuit Court.
A. Warten Broadway

Wade-Wright A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Harry J. Kitrell, David A. Hazelwood, Merrett Compton, Will G. Robinson, James H. Holt, Emmiett B. Ferguson, Carlos J. Boyd, Ed. T. Gray and Wm J. Howard

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 2nd day of October, 1934. B. S. Turrentine Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Duther Yarbrough

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Carlton J. Boyd, Chas. H. Long, Sam G. Flanigan, Clint Ezell, William D. Lyle, Jr., Mark Zehner, Roy Whitt, R. Lewis Morris, and Curb Black.

And it appearing to the Court that;

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
unless..... appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Nick E. Nichols, Jr., Marvin A. Casteel, Bob Irvine Taylor, T. Cheese Gaston, G. Cleve
Batts, Emmett Weatherford, Belt Cole, John B. Griffin, Wm. C. Burns, R. Wallace Craig, Howard Hobbs, Lorena S. Southard, Wm. E. McLemore, Earl T. Green, John W. Boyd, Erskin
Bates, Arthur Vassar and J. Horton Kelly

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, N. E. Nichols, Jr. was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. ....

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 2nd day of October, 1934 B. S. Turrentine Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Luther Yarbrough

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Carlow J. Boyd, Chas. H. Yong, Sam G. Flanigan, Clint Beall, William D. Lyle, Jr., Mark Zehner, Roy Whitt, E. Lewis Morris, and Curb Black.

And it appearing to the Court that;

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as..... who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....) unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Nick E. Nichols, Jr., Marvin A. Casteel, Bob Irvine Taylor, T. Cheese Gaston, G. Cleve Batten, Emmett Weatherford, Belt Cole, John B. Griffin, Wm. C. Burns, E. Wallace Craig, Howard Hobbs, Lorene S. Southard, Wm.S. McLenore, Earl T. Green, John U. Boyd, Irvin Bates, Arthur Vassar and J. Horton Kelly

Who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court, N. E. Nichols, Jr. was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Allen Cox was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.
