Elder Larry Lockett Sr., Pastor

Obituary

Mr. Bennie Lee "Pete" Lockett, was born on March 25, 1964 in Limestone County, AL to the late George L. Lockett Sr. and Mae E. Harris Lockett. He bided this world goodbye and departed for that land on high on Sunday, May 22, 2005 at 12:45 a.m. at St Vincent Mercy Medical Center in Toledo, OH.

He heeded the Master calling "come to Jesus for He will save you just now" in Atlanta, GA and began worshipping and praising the Lord at Cascade United Methodist Church under the leadership of Rev. Joseph Lowery. During his stay in Detroit he continued his Christian fellowship under the leadership of Pastor E. Lindsey and Rev. McGhee. He also joined the New Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Larry R. Lockett, Sr. and later re-located to Sweetwater, TN and joined First United Church of Christ under the leadership of Pastor Vant Hardaway.

His brother, John W. "Bro" Lockett and infant sisters, Margaret and Martha Lockett preceded him in death. He leaves to cherish his memories, wife Bonita Ervin Lockett of Sweetwater, TN. Four daughters: Sherell, Reneisha, Daraysha Hobbs and Dominique McCraney all of Huntsville, AL. Two sons: Benjamin Klein of Maumee, OH and Adonis Lockett of Detroit, MI and two step daughters: Shea and Shanece of Sweetwater, TN. His mother, Mae E. Lockett of Athens, AL. Six brothers: George L. Lockett, Jr (Bernice) of Elkmont, AL, James "Dee Wee" Lockett of Atlanta, GA, Billy Don Lockett of Toledo, OH, Leon, Michael and Greg Lockett of Athens, AL. Three sisters: Irene (Arthur) Williams of Atlanta, GA, Elizabeth and Darlene Lockett of Athens, AL. Two aunts: Carrie Lockett of Trinity, AL and Ida B. Tate of Huntsville, AL. Three uncles: Richard (Elizabeth) Lockett of Madison, AL, Elder John D. (Alberta) Harris of Huntsville, AL and Elder George W. (Ida Mae) Harris of Indianapolis, IN. Three Great Aunts: Sammie Langford, Susie Mae Benford and Alberta Jones all of Huntsville, AL; seven nephews, one great nephew, three nieces and a host of relatives and friends.
