EXPRESSIONS OF GRATITUDE

We are eternally grateful for your kind expressions of love and all acts of kindness shown during our many hours of bereavement. You shall never be forgotten. From the depth of our hearts, "All of us" say, THANKS to each of you.

Great Uncle Bug I will miss the fun times we had together and most of all the cold drinks and honey buns we shared. I love you and will miss You,

Love and Kisses

Obituary

*Miss Me -----But Let Me Go
When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little while - but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love we once shared,
Miss me a little but let me go.*

*For this journey we all must take,
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road home,
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrow's in doing good deeds
Miss Me.....But Let Me Go.*

On Monday, October 4, 1999, God saw that one of His children had grown weary and worn. It was time to rest from his pain and suffering. God commanded that his soul be at rest. The memories of being a son, father, grandfather, great grandfather, brother, uncle, great uncle and friend will be cherished by many.

Finest (BUG) Coleman born October 8, 1929 to Joe and Bessie Coleman of Athens, Alabama departed this life October 4, 1999 at 8:25 A.M. at the Athens-Limestone Hospital, Athens, Alabama.

He served in the United States Army from January 1951 to January 1953. Later, he retired from the Browns Ferry Nuclear Plant, Athens, Alabama in 1988.

He confessed hope in Christ and joined Mount Nebo M.B. Church late in his life and was baptized September 30, 1999.

He leaves to cherish his memories, a devoted family: father, Joe Coleman of Athens, Alabama; sister, Addie Davis of Athens, Alabama; brothers, Willie Coleman (Lela) of Athens, Alabama, Rivers Coleman of Athens, Alabama and Oliver Coleman (Bernice) of Nashville, Tennessee; daughter, Addie O'Neal of Rockford, Illinois; sons, Joe Smith (Valeria) of Nashville, Tennessee, Steve Mosley (Charlotte) of Columbus, Ohio and Cerdic Henderson of Athens, Alabama; a special friend, Elizabeth Mosley of Athens Alabama and a host of relatives and friends.
