OBITUARY

Bruce Harvell Sr. was born one of triplets to Almos and Leanna Allen Harvell on February 13, 1906; in Limestone County. Ruth and Jim preceded him in death.

He professed hope in Christ at an early age and joined the Poplar Creek Church under the pastorate of The Rev. James Garrett.

He was united in holy matrimony to Helen Bell in 1941 and to this union was born seven children. He departed this life Wednesday morning, October 9, 1985; in the Crestwood Hospital, Huntsville, Alabama.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving daughters, Ethel Harvell, Dorothy Coleman, Louisville, Kentucky, Shirley Fletcher and Mona Feagin, a step daughter, Catherine Turner; his beloved sons, Bruce Harvell, Jr., James W. and Charles A. Harvell; his daughters-in-law, Mary Harvell, Daisy Harvell, and Mae Harvell; sons-in-law, James Fletcher, Lewis Coleman and Thomas Feagin.

Fourteen grandchildren and five step-grandchildren and one step-great-granddaughter.

Two loving sisters, Mrs. Lera Farrar and Mrs. Louise Lockhart; two brothers-in-law, Mr. Roy Farrar and Mr. George Lockhart; a host of nieces and nephews and many relatives, neighbors and friends.

*A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.*

*And after a lonely heartache
And many a silent tear.
But always a beautiful memory
Of one we love so dear.*
