Obituary

"The light has gone out on a great soldier, to shine in another land."

Brother Charles Broadway was born September 12, 1924 to the late Morris and Josephine Broadway of Little Rock, Arkansas. Brother Broadway entered the United States Army in 1943 and was discharged 1944.

He confessed Christ at an early age. He was married to the late Alice Broadway whereas two children were born, (Charles Jr. And Charletta). In 1970 he joined in holy matrimony with Theotis Allen Branch. They desired a better life which caused them to move to Athens, Alabama, whereas they established a very happy home together and joined Oak Grove C.M.E. Church. His health began to fail whereas he entered the V.A. Hospital in Birmingham. After a long period of suffering he then passed October 9, 1997 at 3:30 a.m.

He leaves to cherish his memory a wife Theotis Broadway; a son, Charles Broadway, Jr. and daughter Charletta; five step-children, Fredrick Branch, Rodney and Carolyn Branch, Steven and Marie Branch, Phillip J. and Vivian Branch, all of Chicago, Illinois, Theotis and Larry Patrick of Athens, Alabama; sixteen grandchildren, six great grandchildren; two sisters, Levenia Allen and Julie Mozell of Chicago, Illinois; a host of other relatives and friends.

*We all loved him dearly.
But God loved him best -
The angels of mercy have taken
Him home to rest -
So do not be weary,
He's just gone away
where our spirits will join him
In heaven some day!*
