Dear Harry:

I want to thank you sincerely for your kind letter of December 23rd. I want to say to you that I have entertained for you the same friendly feeling and high esteem that you express yourself as feeling for me. Like you - I think often of the days of the "Miller Senate", of the wonderful record I really believe we made in that important body. I am very grateful for your expression of friendship and do me the favor of believing that I entertain the same feeling for you.

I am glad that my legislative days are over. I confess enjoying it while there, but since the years have passed away and since the adjournment of that Senate, I have no desire whatsoever to participate in public life again. I am here in my own home town practicing law for a long period of time within sight of the home in which I was born, and to tell you the truth I am happier now than I have ever been.

Sincerely your friend,
