And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, Luther D. and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 29th day of August, 1921. R. L. Thomas, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 64 Jurors on all of the within named persons except Ed. F. Mc Connell, N. B. Hodges and Sam Hargrove. E. F. Puryear, Sheriff. D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons.

The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows: Charles W. Miller, Tom Briggs, Will Patterson, Gas. W. Hine, Roy Ferguson, Edgar Heyes, N. L. Inman, Geo. E. Holmes, W. H. Nelson, Sam W. Roberts, Jesse Evans, Gas. B. Richardson and W. J. Hodges.

And the Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that of the persons named in said venire and in attendance upon the Court, the following named persons possess the qualifications required by law of grand jurors and petit jurors. The names of said persons possessing the said qualifications of jurors are as follows:

and these, the following named persons, failing to appear, to-wit:

for good and sufficient cause shown to the Court, were excused by the Court from serving as jurors.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors. Luther S. Glaze, one of said persons, was duly appointed by the Court Foreman of said Grand Jury, and the said Luther S. Glaze was duly sworn as required by law as such Foreman, after which each of the other said persons selected to serve as Grand Jurors were duly sworn as required by law. The Grand Jury, thus organized and sworn, was duly charged by the Court. Thereupon W. B. James, was appointed and duly sworn as Bailiff, to serve upon said Grand Jury.

The said Grand Jury, thus organized and charged is composed of the following named persons, to-wit:

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order.
