ELDER ANANIAS GREEN, PASTOR

O B I T U A R Y

Sister Katie Mae Sowell was born May 13, 1907 to the late Jim Sowell and Pinkie Darby Sowell Cain. She departed this life September 1, 1980 at the Athens Limestone County Hospital.

She attended school here in Athens, Alabama.

She professed a hope in Christ at an early age and joined the James Chapel Baptist Church under the late Rev. A. J. James.

She moved to Chattanooga, Tennessee and resided there for a number of years. Her Church there was the St. Ruth P.B.Church.

Upon moving back home to Athens in 1965 she united with St. Mark P.B.Church under the Leadership of the late Rev. Joe Baker. She loved her church and always happy to do what she could for it.

One of her favorite songs was, "I know it was the blood."

She leaves to cherish her memory a sister, Mrs. Susie Jones, Chattanooga, Tennessee. two brothers; Walter Sowell and Dock Cain both of Athens. sisters-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Sowell and Mrs. Bertha Cain both of Athens and Mrs. Rena Sowell of Chattanooga, Tenn, a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

" I have had courage for the hard struggles of life.
And patience for the small ones,

And now that I have laboriously finished my task,

I go to sleep in peace."
