

April 16, 1935.

Senator Hugo Black,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Black:

My friend Mrs. J. H. Calvin of Decatur is quite anxious to secure an appointments to West Point in September 1936 for her son J. H. Calvin Jr.

Mrs. Calvin is a sister of A. E. Jackson of Hartsell and the widow of a very close friend of mine who was in the Wholesale Grocery business in Decatur up until his death a few years ago.

I do not know your commitments of course, as to future appointments, but if you can favor young Calvin I will esteem it a personal favor.

Sincerely yours,

REH:rc
