A Lifetime of Memories

A New Life

My tears do fall and these burdens are hard to bear, but you've taught us that God is always there. You told us to hold on until the end and know that a new life was about to begin. Now you're going on to heaven where your Life have begun and whispering to us to hold on until the end. The tears and pain are so harder to bear but I promise Mom I will meet you there.

Victoria Burks

Reflections

Momma it seems like on yesterday when we saw your smile and heard your laughter. I can still hear your words "All I want is to see my children grown" Momma all your prayers have been answered and we could not have asked for a better life. You taught us how to love each other and to be a God Fearing Family. Momma we will miss you on this side but we will see you again on the other shore. Your legacy will never die, not only with your children, grand children, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren, but people everywhere you will never die as long as we live. Sleep on Momma take your rest. We love you, a great warrior and a strong leader.

A Poem for Ma

Thank you for your gift of love to not only us but everyone around you as well, but now your sharing it with those up above. You had many things to say all in a caring way. You were always the one we could lean on and come to for sound advice, you bared the burden never faltering along the way. You were always the strength of our family, but now we must let you rest calmly. The tears may fall but we know your place in heaven has a good view because your telling God I need to keep an eye on a few. I know you will always be in our hearts and minds so Ma we must let you go but I'll never forget you're one of a kind special woman and we know this isn't good-bye it's a see ya later. Love you!

Your Grandkids

“Ma (From the Start) You Were There”

You mean the world to us and I want you to know
From the start you were there.

I remember as a child you told us what was right, then you taught us wrong from right.
You were always there to make everything alright whether it was a simple fall or a late night call.

From the start you were there 16 to care for and you never complained cause you always trusted in Jesus name.

It must have been hard indeed, but at night we could always find you on your knees praying for God to keep us all, united we stand divided we fall (I remember).

Not a whole lot of money, but how we made it now seem so funny. Adults, now we all are because your words and training will carry us far.

Don't worry we will continue on, you instilled a love in us that will keep us strong ,
Ma I Love You and I want you to know from the start to the end you have always been there.
We Love You Ma.

Mike and all your children

On Sunday evening October 9, 2011
God was looking down from his great high heaven, looking down on all his children and his eyes fell on my Momma.
Tossing on her bed of pain,

And God's big heart was touched with pity, with everlasting pity
And God sat back on his throne and he commanded that tall bright angel standing at his right hand, "Call Me Death"

And that tall bright angel cried in a voice that broke like a clap of thunder,
"Call Me Death, Call Death"

And the echo sounded down the streets of heaven till it reached way back to that shadowy place where death waited with his pale white horses.

And God said, Go down Death, down in Athens
And find Sis. Ella Mae Burks,

She beared the burden in the heat of the day,
She labored long in my vineyard
She's tired....she's weary....

Go down Death and bring her to me.
And death took her up like a baby and she laid in his arms,
And Jesus took his own hands and wiped away her tears

And said take your rest, take your rest!
Weep not, weep not she is not dead, she is resting in the bosom of Jesus.

THERE'S SOMETHING MY FAMILY SHOULD KNOW

*God reached down his loving hand and chose to lead you away
For us left here without you, it was just a few days ago*

*For God saw you suffering and wanted to set you free
He said, My child you'll suffer no more, if you come to live with me*

*Without hesitation, you said, I'll go
But first, let me take a second God, for 'There's something my family should know'*

*God said My child please talk to them and tell them what's in your heart
Then I will take your graceful hand, and you and I shall part*

*You said, I love each one of you with everything that I am
But now my time on earth is done, and I must trust in him*

*Cry not for me dear family, keep a smile upon your face
Remember, I'll be in Heaven, a beautiful and loving place*

*I'm not afraid, and I'll be at peace
For my sickness and pain I know will cease*

*And When I take my journey home and get to Heaven's door
I'll be forever happy, and tears I'll shed no more*

*I'll take my place in Heaven, and I'll stand right by your side
Please tell me what your weakness is, in me you can confide*

I'll give you love and all my strength whenever you're in need I'll not be just your Mother and Grandmother, for an Angel I will be For when I chose to take God's hand, He chose to set me free

I Love and Miss You Ma,

Bridgett
