

FLOWER BEARERS

Mothers of Bethlehem Primitive P. B. Church - Sister Sue Harris

PALL BEARERS

Deacons of Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church

—INTERMENT— New Hope Cemetery

PEOPLES FUNERAL HOME
Athens Alabama 35611

FUNERAL SERVICES

For

DEACON U. L. DAVIS

Sunday, August 17, 1980 - 1:00 P.M.

BETHLEHEM PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH
Greenbrier, Alabama

REVEREND W. E. OWES, PASTOR

BURIAL: New Hope Cemetery

OBITUARY

Mr. U. L. Davis born in Limestone County on April 15, 1920, to the Mr. Joe Davis and Mrs. Jessie Davis. He departed this life August 9, 1980 at 8:00 A.M. o'clock at the Huntsville Hospital, Huntsville, Alabama. He confessed hope in Christ July 30, 1957 and joined the Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church in Greenbrier, Alabama under the Reverend Willie Ed Owes. In later years he was ordained as a Deacon, which he served well.

He leaves to cherish his memory, two daughter, Mrs. Eddie Mae Pitts of Decatur, Alabama and Ms. Paulette Davis of Huntsville, Alabama; three sons, Mr. Donald Davis of Athens, Alabama, Mr. U. L. Davis, Jr. and Mr. Kerry Davis both of Huntsville, Alabama; one step-daughter, Mrs. Debra Drake of Huntsville, Alabama; four sisters, Ms. Willie Mae Peebles of Nashville, Tennessee, Ms. Luevenia Erskine, Ms. Irene Peebles and Ms. Bennie Toney all of Huntsville, Alabama; three granddaughters, Mary Pitts and Martha Pitts of Decatur, Alabama and Mrs. Glinda Troupe of Belle Mina, Alabama; seven great-grandchildren; one uncle, Mr. Milton Davis of Huntsville, Alabama; a dear friend, Mrs. Edna Anderson of Athens;; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

PROGRAM

PROCESSIONAL .....	Choir
SONG .....	Choir
PRAYER .....	Deacon Amos Pruitt
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS .....	Sister Virginia Jamar
SONG .....	Bethlehem No. 1 Choir
SCRIPTURE .....	Appointee
REMARKS:
As a member .....	Deacon Bennie Dortch
As a friend .....	Brother Bennett Higgins
EULOGY .....	Reverend W. E. Owes Reverend K. B. Lankford
SOLO .....	Sister Rainey Malone
CLOSING PRAYER .....	Deacon Joe Rice