TREASURY DEPARTMENT

INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

NASHVILLE, TENN. Nov. 24, 1923.

Mr. R. H. Walker,

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 23rd making reference to our report in the case of W. R. Walker, deceased. This office does not have authority to extend the twenty-day period, and the report has, therefore, been transmitted to Washington. This is not, however, intended to deprive you or any taxpayer of his privilege to protest, and this office will be glad to give consideration to any protest which you have to offer in this case.

In case you are to be in Nashville as stated in your letter, I shall be glad to see you at any time. Should it not be convenient for you to be here in person you may submit your protest in writing, furnishing two copies of same.

Very truly yours,

JRK:AIR

Revenue Agent in Charge.
