OBITUARY

Welford G. "Jabo" McLin was born in Limestone County, Alabama on June 25, 1915. He was the eldest son of the late Eljia Harris and the late Tom McLin. He married Mary Pearl Houston in 1946. To this union, 12 children were born: six sons and six daughters.

He was baptized into Christ in 1954 by Bro. O. K. Marbury at the Lucas Street Church of Christ. Bro. McLin remained a faithful Christian until his death, Sunday, December 12, 1999.

He leaves to mourn his passing: a loving wife, Mary Pearl; six sons: Welford, Jr., Huntsville, AL; Winston (Patricia) Rockford, IL; William Gene, Atlanta, GA; Willie Francis (Jacqueline) Phoenix, AZ; Wellington James (Melissa) Atlanta, GA; and Walter, Athens, AL; six daughters: Mary Ann Malone (John D.) Rockford, IL; Rosetta Glasper, Huntsville, AL; Marian Beck (William), Rogersville, AL; Martha Malone (Michael) Tanner, AL; Nancy Boyd (Thomas) Athens, AL, and Vnita McLin, Athens, AL; three brothers-in-law: Lewis Gill, Tanner, AL; Roosevelt and Burnett Houston, both of Athens, AL; three sisters-in-law: Mamie Hobbs (George) Rockford, IL, Rose Houston, Louisville, Ky, and Florence McLin, Athens, AL; 23 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

To My Daddy!!
When morning glims the skies
My heart awakening cries
I Love You Daddy!
The night becomes as day
When from the heart I say
I Love You Daddy!
The power of darkness fear
When this sweet chant I hear
I Love You Daddy!

Vnita McLin

Many people will remember when they talked with Jabo, usually at Home Town Grocery, that he always had something to say about his children and their children. He loved all of them, and he lived long enough to see all of his grand-children and great-grand-children: Shae, Alia, Saturn, Myles, Bryant, Irma, Harris, Olivia, Brea, Quintasha, Tyra, Trevin, Ravyn, Kiara, Keona, Malachi, and baby K.J.
