Obituary

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; For the former things are passed away.
Revelation 21:3-4

Sister Carrie Moore was born to the late Constance and Rachel Bass, September 16, 1905, in Limestone County, Alabama. She departed this life January 22, 1982, in the Athens Limestone County Hospital.

She confessed hope in Christ at an early age and became a member of the Little Zion Missionary Baptist Church, under the pastorage of Reverend Yancy Beddingfield, and remained a faithful and loyal member until death.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Cottrell Yarbrough, Sr., to this two sons were born, Garnell and Cottrell, Jr.

Later in life she married the late Mr. John. E. Moore. They, both, preceded her in death.

She was a loving and devoted mother, a faithful Christian, true to God's world, loyal to her church, Bethel Court Sisters and friends. and one of the first ushers at Little Zion Church.

There are many in her immediate surroundings who weep today for they have lost a good friend, indeed.

She will be missed among all who knew her. Sister Moore lived, prayed and witnessed for her Lord in her daily life. Her life's work spreads from her home, into the community at large. We will miss her, but pray that someone will follow in her footstep. We love her, but God's loves her best.

She leaves to cherish her memories, two sons, Mr. Garnell Yarbrough, Sr., Louisville, KY., and Mr. Cottrell Yarbrough, Jr., Cleveland, Ohio; two daughters-in-law; two grandsons, Garnell, Jr., and Kavin Yarbrough, Louisville, KY; two nephews, Mr. Otis Bass, Athens, Alabama, Mr. L. C. Bass, Indianapolis, Ind; a very devoted neice-in-law and friend, Mrs. Mildred Booker, Athens, Alabama; six devoted step-children; Mr. Jimmy Lee Moore, Mr. George D. Moore, Mr. John R. Moore, Mrs. Lenora Stinnett, Mrs. Beatrice Jennings, and Mrs. Lucille Horton, and a host of relatives and friends.

*Tis sad to part with those we love.
While here on earth we stay,
But, them there's a brighter that comes.
We'll meet again, someday.*
