Obituary

Zelma Daniel Carter was born November 14, 1927, in Wedowee Alabama, to the late John Wilburn and Mittie Idella Daniel.

At an early age she professed her faith in Christ at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church under the pastorate of Rev. Gaines Smith in Wedowee, Alabama. She moved to Athens, Alabama and united with Emmanuel Church of God in Christ officiated by Elder James Brinkley.

Zelma Daniel Carter was a member of the Alabama Funeral Director and Mortician Association, Eastern Star and Alabama Chamber of Commerce. She was awarded "Business Women of the Year" 1979. She also sponsored the Mason Funeral Home broadcast for over twenty years.

In her profession as a nurse and funeral director she donated her time and services to those in need, many times at no charge. She had a thoughtful, kind and giving spirit.

Zelma Daniel Carter departed this life on September 10, 2001. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband Carinus Carter, her son Martin Luther Scales, three brothers Matthew, Joseph Sidney and Robert Edward Daniel; one sister Josephine Bailey. She leaves to cherish her memories three sisters, Sophia McMiller and Rachel Provience, New Orleans, La; Lillie Mae Harris, Cincinnati, Ohio, four brothers, John W. (Geraldine) Daniel, Wedowee, Al; Thomas T. (Othresa) Daniel, Lansing, Mich., William James (Carrie) Daniel, Wadley, Al. and Franklin D. Daniel, Jemison, Al., many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. God daughter Adella Stracke, a very good friend Mr. James (Jim) Stracke.

Zelma D. Carter often expressed her appreciation for the dedication, friendship and services rendered by all of her staff at the Mason Funeral Home.
