

FUNERAL SERVICES

For

MRS. FRONNIE BASSHAM

Sunday, October 31, 1971 -- 1:00 P.M.

Elkmont C. P. Church

Elkmont, Alabama

Rev. Oscar Edmundson, Pastor

Peoples Funeral Home, Directing
Athens, Alabama

OBITUARY

All things belong to God,
The earth, the sky, the sea,
The Atom and the universe,
And all eternity.

The late Mrs. Fronnie Bassham was born August 14, 1924 in Honoraville, Alabama to Ethel and the late Sam Meriweather.

She was united with the Church of Christ in Fort Deposit, Alabama.

She was united in matrimony to Mr. Robert Bassham, March 19, 1947 and moved to Elkmont, Alabama, where she joined the Elkmont C. P. Church and remained faithful until death.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband, Mr. Robert Bassham, her mother, Mrs. Ethel Meriweather, two sisters, Mrs. Pearl Mae Coleman, Elkmont, Alabama and Mrs. Mattie Bell Peterson of Dayton, Ohio, three brothers, Sammy and David Meriweather, Honoraville, Alabama and Frank Meriweather, Houston, Texas. Two very devoted nieces, Mrs. Ann Sanders and Mrs. Earline Hicks, Dayton, Ohio, one aunt, Mrs. Pearl Shepherd, Dayton, Ohio, two brothers-in-law, Rev. Willie Coleman, Coleman Bassham, six sisters-in-law, Viola Meriweather, Louise Meriweather, Charlotte Meriweather, Roberta Miller, Lucille Sanders, Lorene Wright, and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

All things are part of God's design
Including you and I
And it is not for any soul,
To ask or wonder why.

So as our glory may be bright,
Or keep on getting dim,
Let us be mindful always
That all things belong to God.

PROGRAM

Processional

Song Choir

Song and Prayer Elder Joe Martindale

Scripture Appointee

Eastern Stars

Song

Prayer

Remarks — As A Neighbor Mrs. Cora Phillips
Mission Worker Mrs. Lillie B. Smith
As A Church Member Elder George McWilliams

Acknowledgements Peoples Funeral Home Director

Obituary Read In Silence

Response From Family Annie Sanders

Eulogy Rev. Oscar Edmondson

Solo Mildred Harris

Viewing of the Remains Peoples Funeral Home

Graveside Service Order of the Eastern Stars

Interment Smithfield Cemetery

FLORAL ATTENDANTS

Naomi Chapter Order of Eastern Stars

PALL BEARERS

Masonic Lodge No. 71

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family of the late Mrs. Fronnie Bassham expresses sincere appreciation for the kind thoughts, floral tributes and other acts of kindness rendered.