Obituary

Mrs. Cassie King Fraser was born January 2, 1938, into the family of the late Henderson King and Arbria Turner Malone. On Friday, December 21, 2012, she entered into eternal rest.

Cassie was united in marriage to Fred Fraser, on December 21, 1957, and to this union two daughters were born. She was preceded in death by her sisters, Emma Wiley and Louise Carroll.

A graduate of Trinity High School, Class of 1958, in Athens, Al, she also took classes at a several local colleges. After working various jobs, including Insurance Sales, Cassie retired from General Electric Co. in Decatur, Al.

At a very early age, she joined the Sweet Home Missionary Baptist Church and has remained a member for more than 60 years. For several years she served on the Usher Board and was a member of the Sanctuary Choir. She is especially known for her church fundraising.

Cassie peaceably went to the Lord early on Friday morning. She leaves to cherish her memories, her mother, Arbria Malone, two devoted daughters, Delbra Davis and Beverly Fraser; grandchildren, Rashaunda Crumbough, Kenny and Shea Connell; one sister, Rosie Turner; a brother-in-law, Bennie Fraser (Bertha); a "sisterly" cousin, Dorothy Malone; all of Athens, Alabama; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

Mrs. Cassie K. Fraser

God saw you getting weary,
He did what he thought best;
He put His arms around you
And said, "Come and rest."

You bade no one a last farewell,
Not even a goodbye;
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And He found an empty place
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your precious face

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest;
God' s Garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain
He knew you' d never ever
Get well on earth again.

So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered " Peace be thine "
Then He took you up to Heaven
With Hands so gentle and kind.

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God welcomed you home.
