

Pallbearers

W. C. Bailey

J. W. Wood

John W. Woods

Jimmie Woods

Davis Stinnett

Anthony Rogers

Flower Attendants

Sally Bell

Josie Peoples

Dorise Garthen

Odell Moore

Bernetta Malone

Serrie Horton

The Family of the Late Mrs. Carolyn Caldwell would like to thank their many friends for all acts of kindness for all expressions of sympathy shown during their hours of bereavement.

Funeral Services for

Mrs. Carolyn J. Caldwell

Thursday, November 11, 1976
12:00 Noon

St. Mark Primitive Baptist Church
Athens, Alabama

Peoples Funeral Home, Directing
Reverend Sammie Crutcher Officiating

Order of Service

Procession

Song . . . . . Choir
Prayer . . . . . Reverend Morris Malone
Scripture . . . . . Reverend F. M. Malone
Selection . . . . . Choir
Remarks . . . . . Joel Buchanan
Acknowledgements . . . . . James Horton
Obituary . . . . . (Read in silence)
Selection . . . . . Choir
Eulogy . . . . . Reverend Sammie Crutcher
Solo . . . . . Sister Geirgia Watkins

Now the day is over

Night is drawing nigh.

Shadows across the evening

Steal across the skies.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Carolyn Jean Townsend Caldwell was born on march 14, 1958 to Mr. & Mrs. Leon Townsend in Athens, Alabama. She departed this life on October 30, 1976.

She was married to Mozell Caldwell, Jr. and to this union was born a son, Tracy.

She leaves to cherish her memories a husband, Mozell Caldwell, Jr. of Athens, Alabama; a son, Tracy; a loving mother and father, Mr. & Mrs. Leon Townsend of Athens; five sisters, Barbara Wilson and Eddie Mary Townsend of Westbury, Long Island, New York, Mrs. Bettye Ford of Athens, Mrs. Marion Kirby of Athens and Margaret Townsend of Athens, and Mrs. Levern Dawls of Seaside California; four brothers, James, Wallace, and Michael, William Earl, all of Athens, Alabama; a mother and father-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. Mozell Caldwell, Sr. of Athens; four uncles, four aunts, six nieces, eight nephews, four brothers-in-law, three sister-in-laws and a host of other relatives and friends.