THE SEASON OF GOD

Never to forget shaking your hand,
As we planned to meet later on;
How I feel less of a man,
To understand my friend is gone,
Now we all stand alone,
Asking God for a reason why;
Isaac's soul was ripe for the season,
To go back home after passing by.
These are prophecies of Truth,
Granted for humanity's explanation;
They say the youth planted roots for Satan-
Then wrote us off as a lost generation.
Still we live among despairing times,
Nearing the ending times for dying;
The call is now to reform brotherhood,
Finding good to be worth trying.
Put away your treasures and pleasures,
If only you will for a little while;
Our day to kneel is not long-
Before the throne of a Holy Child.-
