Obituary

Mr. Irvin was born on February 4, 1925 in Limestone County to the late Charlie Harris and Mammie Harris.

He was a veteran of World War II. He was a retired construction worker.

Early in life Irvin accepted Christ as his personal Savior. He was a member of the Mount Vernon Primitive Baptist Church, he served as a deacon.

Having unquestionably fought a good fight, Irvin departed this life on January 31, 2002 in Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

He leaves to cherish his memories: four son, Irvin Harris Jr. of Rockford, Illinois, Gaylord Harris of Vista, California, Billy Harris and Calsor Harris both of Athens, Alabama; two daughters, Sue Carol Johnson of Montgomery, Alabama, and Minnie Ballanger of Chattanooga, Tennessee; one brother, W. C. Harris of Minneapolis, Minnesota; one sister, Delois Jackson of Athens, Alabama; eighteen grandchildren, thirty-two great grandchildren.
