

SOMEONE SPECIAL

*Someone you can depend on,
Someone who was always there.
At times when we thought
we couldn't make it,
You saw us through with your love and care.*

*You were there for us in the good times
and in the bad times too.
And even when we thought we couldn't go on,
We found strength in you.*

*We will always remember the things
you taught us,
We'll remember your lovable,
outspoken voice.
We wish you could stay here
with us forever,
But that was not God's choice.*

*God chose to take you home with Him.
Your work down here was complete.
And though it hurts to let you go,
In Heaven, I know we will meet.*

*Love forever,
Your Loving Sons,*

Obituary

*"For me to live is Christ.
To die is gain."*

The angel of death visited Huntsville Hospital in Huntsville, Alabama on Friday, October 25, 2002 at 5:20 p.m. and snatched from our midst, SISTER IRENE MOORE.

Irene was born the seventh child, to the late Mr. Charlie and Ada M. Garrison Yarbrough in Tanner, Alabama, Limestone County. Irene arrived to this family on December 25, 1942 -- and a "lovely gift" she was.

She accepted Christ as her Personal Savior at an early age and joined New Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church. She served faithfully in the children's church and missionary society. She was a person believing in a true and living God.

She was united in Holy Matrimony for twenty-nine years to the late Elder Darnell Moore. To this union, two sons were born.

Irene graduated from Trinity High School in Athens, Alabama in 1961. She loved to read, believing the information contained between the two covers impelled you to "read until you find it." She was retired for one and one-half years. Shortly before retiring, she attended Faulkner University, Computer Specialist for three and one-half semesters and was an A/B Honoree. Her motto was to learn more, to be more, is expected to do more for the Lord.

Irene leaves to cherish her memories, two sons whom she loved dearly: Terrance Darryl (Ann) Moore of Rockchester, Iowa and Shawn Sharrel Moore of Huntsville, Alabama; four sisters: Pearlene (Charlie J.) Staten, Bertha M. Porter, Eula M. Gaines, and Shirley A. Cunningham, all of Huntsville, Alabama; one brother, Reverend Robert (Mae Willie) Yarbrough of Tanner, Alabama; four sisters-in-law: Martha (Richard) Spillers of Edwardsville, Illinois, Merrill Moore of Huntsville, Alabama, Claudette (John) Tibbs of Washington, D.C., and Rena (Bonnie Lee) Robinson of Chicago, Illinois; four brothers-in-law: Loyd (Linda) Moore, Harold (Delois) Moore, of Huntsville, Alabama, Earnest (Marasha) Moore of Warner Robbin, Georgia and Newell (Anette) Moore, Jr. of Chicago, Illinois; three grandsons, two aunts and two uncles of Louisville, Kentucky, one uncle of Chicago, Illinois; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
