

MISS MARTHA BUCHANAN

CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

Feb. 1, 1931

My dear Maama

I have just come from Allen Tate's where I spent the night. I like them very much. They were cordial and friendly, and we really had a good time. Allen Tate and his crowd are anxious to buy a country newspaper to vent their doctrines. He knows William Wacker very well, and was quite interested when I told him that William wanted a paper.

I have just sent my program to Mr. Jones. I mean the program for the State Teachers' Meeting in April. Dr. Perkins wrote me that it was an admirable program. But I tell you my work here is is difficult. I just really do not like to teach Geography and Dr. Claxton means for us to work. I have had two long talks with him this week. I had dinner at Jennie K's one day this week. She is truly a great friend of ours.

I have been intending writing Robert to tell him how much the paper has improved. I mean the Lincoln County News. It seems to me a very good paper now. He should have a column of some kind.

Several of my friends are not well, so I think I shall go to see them now and mail this letter so you will get it tomorrow. Allen Tate wants to go to Fayetteville. But he cannot go for several weeks as he is working hard on a book. He is going to Nashville tomorrow to write for two weeks.

I knew that Mr. Medearis would have a fine funeral. Tell Robert
