Obituary

Rachel D. Provience

was born in Wedowee, Alabama on November 15, 1917 to John Wilburn Daniel and Mittie (Marable) Daniel. She layed down to rest on Sunday morning, July 3, 2005 when God's Heavenly Angel came and took her home.

Rachel will be remembered by her children, Marvin (Sandra) Johnson of Atlanta, Ga., Melvin Johnson of Stone, Mountain, Ga., Marilyn Johnson of Stone Mountain, Ga., and stepson, Merrill Provience of Huntsville, Al.; her three brothers, James (Carrie) Daniel of Wedowee, Al., John Daniel of Wedowee, Al., and Thomas (Othressa) Daniel of Lansing, Mi.; her sister, Lillie Mae Harris of Cincinnati, Oh.; her ten grandchildren, eight great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, church family, and friends.

Rachel graduated from Alabama State University. She worked as a teacher for the Alabama Board of Education for more than 35 years. She taught school for the Clay County School System in Lineville, Alabama and later moved to Athens, Alabama, worked for the Limestone County School System.

Rachel was never without a church home. She was very active and served God everywhere she lived. She joined Pleasant Grove Baptist Church in Wedowee, Alabama at an early age. She was a member of James Chapel Baptist Church in Athens, Alabama. After her retirement, she moved to Atlanta, Georgia to be with her children.

Rachel united with Union Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia. Some members from Union Baptist Church formed Christian Fellowship Baptist Church. She served there until her sister, Sophia needed her in New Orleans Louisiana.

Rachel united with Franklin Avenue Baptist Church in New Orleans. She served the Lord there for approximately 10 years. After the home going of her sister, Rachel moved back to Atlanta, Georgia and worshipped with The Little Friendship Baptist Church.

I love you all I missed

can't wait to see you
