Obituary

Cooper Ricks was born on February 29, 1940 in Hillsboro, Alabama to Lucy Byrd and Lucious Ricks, and entered into eternal rest on February 15, 2010 at Parkway Medical Center.

He confessed hope in Christ at an early age and joined Mt. Olive P.B. Church under the leadership of D. C. Crittenden, where he remained a faithful member and served on the Deacon Board until his health failed him.

He received his education through the Lawrence County School Systems and graduated from Tennessee Valley High School in 1960. He was employed by Goodyear for 35 years. Upon retirement he continued doing odd jobs.

He was untied in Holy matrimony to the late Adell Prince Ricks and this union was blessed with one child, Alexandria Ricks. He was preceded in death by his parents, six brothers, Issac Byrd, Lucious Ricks Jr., Clarence Spain, Willie Porter, Charlie Porter and Theodore "Pluck" Porter, one sister, Carrie B. Jones.

He leaves to cherish his memory, one daughter, Alexandria Ricks of Huntsville, AL, four sons, Samuel Ricks of Hillsboro, AL, Clarence Ricks of MS, Cory Ellison of Decatur, AL and Reginald Clay of Hillsboro, AL, two brothers, Jacob Ricks and Richard Ricks, five sisters, Lucille Miller of Madison, AL, Lillie Mae Davis of Hillsboro, AL, Lucille Thompson or Arkansas, Earnestine Terrell of Arkansas, Sylvia Speld or Arkansas, seven grandchildren, one great-grandchild, a nephew whom he raised as a son, Jason Prince, a very special sister-in-law, Versa Prince, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends, a devoted companion, Clara Seay.
