OBITUARY

The loss of one you dearly love,
Is certainly hard to bear.
But may it help to comfort you,
To know that others care.

Pfc. Herman L. Troupe, was born October 30, 1946 to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Troupe of Rt. one, Tanner, Alabama. He grew up in Limestone County and attended the churches and schools here. He was graduated from Trinity High School in 1964; also was a football player and always did a fine job. He was an obedient child to his parents. He was called to the Army in February 1966; was transferred to Viet Nam July 18, 1966. He was wounded by his own company by short fire August 18, 1966.

He leaves to mourn his passing a mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Troupe; one daughter, Carolyn Euet Toney, Tanner; five sisters, Mrs. Pearl Robinson, Dayton, Ohio, Mrs. Annie Thorton, Dayton, Ohio, Shirley Annie Troupe, Agnes Diann Troupe, Sandra Renee Troupe; Tanner, Alabama; five brothers, Mr. L. C. Troupe, Athens, Alabama, Mr. Ben Frank Troupe, Mr. Jimmy Lee Troupe, Mr. Berthold Troupe, Mr. Alphonso Troupe, Tanner, Alabama; five uncles, Mr. Woodrow Troupe, Madison, Alabama, Mr. James Sanford, Chattanooga, Tenn., Mr. Jimmie Stovall, Tanner, Alabama, Mr. Vera Stovall, Decatur, Ala., Mr. Momuent Stovall, Athens, Alabama; nine aunts, Mrs. Elnoria Matthews, Chicago, Illinois, Mrs. Christine Brown, Chicago, Mrs. Ruth Murphy, Chicago, Mrs. Mary Smith, Chicago, Mrs. Pearl Peoples, Bellemina, Alabama, Mrs. Minnie Pryor, Flint, Alabama, Mrs. Neatha Stovall, Athens, Alabama, Mrs. Era Scales, Tanner, Alabama, Mrs. Laura Mae Malone, Decatur, Alabama; three great aunts, Lessie Stevenson, Eden Prince, Decatur, Alabama, Ella Crutcher, Athens, Alabama, and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

The Heavenly Father with a tender hand,
Shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.
They are forever beyond the reach of harm:
And all sadness is taken away.
