Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sang a lovely song, or sat quietly in a chair; Perhaps you sent a floral spray; if so, we saw it there; Perhaps you spoke a kind word, that anyone can say; Perhaps you didn't come at all; just thought of us that day. Whatever the deed, Whatever the part, thank you so much, from the bottom of our hearts.

Obituary

*Night falls, the young and the old alike,
And whatever pains or sorrows the soul has known,
Is exchanged for peace, a different world, a different scene,
A different place. . .*

Lucy Willie Madry was born July 12, 1931 to the late William and Flossie Madry.

To this union five children were born, all who preceded her in death.

Lucy departed from this life Friday, July 21, 2000 at 11:08 P.M. at Athens-Limestone Hospital.

Sister Madry confessed hope in Christ April 11, 1999 and joined Oak Grove C.M.E. Church where she served faithfully until her health failed.

She leaves to cherish her memory, two loving daughters, Mildred Allen and Minnie Bell Goodloe both of Athens, Alabama; two sisters-in-law, Fannie Mae Madry of Louisville, Kentucky and Mae Bell Madry of Athens, Alabama; five grandchildren, Stephanie, Jackie, Retrina, Eric, and Chad; six great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Momma

*Momma, Oh Momma, what are we to do
After all these years of loving you?
You told us not to worry and
You told us not to fuss.
Now don't worry about our tears,
It's just the human in us.
We remember you worked all day on your feet
So your poor children would have food to eat.
We witnessed your trust in God's grace,
As you struggled through life to win this race.
And we knew from the very start,
We received every ounce of love in your heart.
Now them ole doctors can't do you no harm
Pricking, prying and sticking needles in your arm.
Just sit back and listen to the angels sings,
You don't have to worry what the morning will bring.
Now you don't have to lay in bed
Too weak to even move your head
Momma you fought a good fight
And there's no more suffering through the night.
Go on now Momma and take your rest.,
We love you but God loved you best.
When you get to Heaven, take a load off your feet,
Say hello to Jesus and tell him to Save us a Seat.
Love Always*
