and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 21st day of March, 1910. J. E. Glenn, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of sixty Jurors on all of the within named persons except

this April 1st 1910

Henderson Legg, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

And the Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that of the persons named in said venire and in attendance upon the Court, the following named persons possess the qualifications required by law of grand jurors and petit jurors. The names of said persons possessing the said qualifications of jurors are as follows:

and these, the following named persons, failing to appear, to wit:

for good and sufficient cause shown to the Court, were excused by the Court from serving as jurors.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to wit:

the sum of _____ ($ _____)

unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

W.M. Newby, Ed. P. Groce, J.D. Hicks, M.B. Brooks, John B. Bauer, W.E. Legg, E.L. Loveless, A.M. Christensen, G.B. Thomas, Chas. A. Leopard, J.H. Brooks, J.D. Hamilton, Lee Hightower, S.W. Peete, Geo. R. Bullington, F.R. Engelbert, J.J. Blackiter, J.M. Biggs

The Court having ascertained that each of the Eighteen persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, S.W. Peete, one of said persons, was duly appointed by the Court Foreman of said Grand Jury, and the said S.W. Peete was duly sworn as required by law as such Foreman, after which each of the other said persons selected to serve as Grand Jurors were duly sworn as required by law. The Grand Jury, thus organized and sworn, was duly charged by the Court. Thereupon James Looney was appointed and duly sworn as Bailiff, to serve upon said Grand Jury.

The said Grand Jury, thus organized and charged, is composed of the following named persons, to wit:

W.M. Newby, Ed. P. Groce, J.D. Hicks, M.B. Brooks, John B. Bauer, W.E. Legg, E.L. Loveless, A.M. Christensen, G.B. Thomas, Chas. A. Leopard, J.H. Brooks, J.D. Hamilton, Lee Hightower, S.W. Peete, Geo. R. Bullington, F.R. Engelbert, J.J. Blackiter, J.M. Biggs

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, L. N. Gilbert, one of said persons, was duly appointed by the Court Foreman of said Grand Jury, and the said L. N. Gilbert was duly sworn as required by law as such Foreman, after which each of the other said persons selected to serve as Grand Jurors were duly sworn as required by law. The Grand Jury, thus organized and sworn, was duly charged by the Court. Thereupon S. J. Weatherford was appointed and duly sworn as Bailiff, to serve upon said Grand Jury.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 12 day of March, 1913. Henderson Legg, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except

C.W. Meadows, A.J. Johnson, J.P. Brakefield, R.F. Kolbert, Sheriff. D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

J.W. Simmons, B.J. B. Hodge, Henry Martin, B.B. Henderson, D.R. Owen, Spivey Chanan.

And the Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that of the persons named in said venire and in attendance upon the Court, the following named persons possess the qualifications required by law of grand jurors and petit jurors. The names of said persons possessing the said qualifications of jurors are as follows:

and these, the following named persons, failing to appear, to wit:

for good and sufficient cause shown to the Court, were excused by the Court from serving as jurors.
And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, E.D. Glaze, one of said persons, was duly appointed by the Court Foreman of said Grand Jury, and the said E.D. Glaze was duly sworn as required by law as such Foreman, after which each of the other said persons selected to serve as Grand Jurors were duly sworn as required by law. The Grand Jury, thus organized and sworn, was duly charged by the Court. Thereupon R.M. Blum was appointed and duly sworn as Bailiff, to serve upon said Grand Jury.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, T. W. And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, J. W. And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the Eighteen persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, E. A. The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, Wash R. Johnson, one of said persons, was duly appointed by the Court Foreman of said Grand Jury, and the said Wash R. Johnson was duly sworn as required by law as such Foreman, after which each of the other said persons selected to serve as Grand Jurors were duly sworn as required by law. The Grand Jury, thus organized and sworn, was duly charged by the Court. Thereupon W. D. Holland was appointed and duly sworn as Bailiff, to serve upon said Grand Jury.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, J. N. Witness this.....day of March, 1917.....R.L. Thomas....., Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of.....E.O......Jurors on all of the within named persons except

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. and these, the following named persons, failing to appear, to wit:

for good and sufficient cause shown to the Court, were excused by the Court from serving as jurors.
And it appearing to the Court that

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, E.W. Barver, one of said persons, was duly appointed by the Court Foreman of said Grand Jury, and the said E.W. Barver was duly sworn as required by law as such Foreman, after which each of the other said persons selected to serve as Grand Jurors were duly sworn as required by law. The Grand Jury, thus organized and sworn, was duly charged by the Court. Thereupon Henry Davis was appointed and duly sworn as Bailiff, to serve upon said Grand Jury.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. and these, the following named persons, failing to appear, to wit:

for good and sufficient cause shown to the Court, were excused by the Court from serving as jurors.

And it appearing to the Court that

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, Ed L. Daly, one of said persons, was duly appointed by the Court Foreman of said Grand Jury, and the said Ed L. Daly was duly sworn as required by law as such Foreman, after which each of the other said persons selected to serve as Grand Jurors were duly sworn as required by law. The Grand Jury, thus organized and sworn, was duly charged by the Court. Thereupon Sam Carhane was appointed and duly sworn as Bailiff, to serve upon said Grand Jury.

Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which

The Court having ascertained that each of the Eighteen persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, C. O. and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 18th day of Feb, 1920 R. L. Thomas, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 66 Jurors on all of the within named persons except Wright Frost, R. A. Fogg and D. G. McChung.

E. F. Puryear, Sheriff.

O. W. Steam, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows: Geo. S. Rowe, J. S. Powell,

John D. Brock, Russell Balch, W. O. Lipscomb, M. A. Pope, Henry Munif and Lark E. Daly.

And the Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that of the persons named in said venire and in attendance upon the Court, the following named persons possess the qualifications required by law of grand jurors and petit jurors. and these, the following named persons, failing to appear, to wit:

for good and sufficient cause shown to the Court, were excused by the Court from serving as jurors.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to wit:

the sum of _____ ($ _____)

unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

R. L. Bradford, D. W. Pugh, Orl. J. Grisham, Leslie M. Nelson, Harry C. Carville, Sam W. Roberts, Homer French, W. P. Wallace, Wallace Coleman, J. Frank Smith, John M. Alfrey, Clint A. Furlin, S. G. Johnston, Claude Griffin, Frank P. Dougherty, Herman Ulrich, W. Tolley McHenry, William Worley.

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, R. L. Bradford, one of said persons, was duly appointed by the Court Foreman of said Grand Jury, and the said R. L. Bradford was duly sworn as required by law as such Foreman, after which each of the other said persons selected to serve as Grand Jurors were duly sworn as required by law. and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 23rd day of December, 1921.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of Culver M. Willis, Maudie G. Warren,
Floyd Smith and Albert Clement,

R. L. Thomas, Clerk Circuit Court.
6⁹ Jurors on all of the within named persons except
E. R. Wallace, Ed. Rogers,
O. F. Puryear, Sheriff.
O. W. Strawn, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Jas. H. Graham, Ben J. Jaffe,
R. Porter, Rick, Dock Webb, B. H. Egell, Chas. L. Williams-
son, Chas. M. Corder, Ed. J. Magnusson, Richard H.
Clem, and A. B. McWilliams.

And the Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that of the persons named in said venire and in attendance upon the Court, the following named persons possess the qualifications required by law of grand jurors and petit jurors. The names of said persons possessing the said qualifications of jurors are as follows:

and these, the following named persons, failing to appear, to wit:

for good and sufficient cause shown to the Court, were excused by the Court from serving as jurors.
And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to wit:

the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, Walter H. Ryan, one of said persons, was duly appointed by the Court Foreman of said Grand Jury, and the said Walter H. Ryan was duly sworn as required by law as such Foreman, after which each of the other said persons selected to serve as Grand Jurors were duly sworn as required by law. The Grand Jury, thus organized and sworn, was duly charged by the Court. Thereupon Bill Norton was appointed and duly sworn as Bailiff, to serve upon said Grand Jury.

The said Grand Jury, thus organized and charged, is composed of the following named persons, to wit:
C. E. Brock, W. A. Piles, W. E. Meadows, Milton L. Easter, S. Ward Parkman, Sam L. Flanigan, Walter H. Ryan, W. Carl Statchett, Will St. Beasley, Shullie Biggerstaff, B. Forest Hodges, Will H. The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. And it appearing to the Court that W. A. Morris and J. C. Williams

the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, H. B. Malone, one of said persons, was duly appointed by the Court Foreman of said Grand Jury, and the said *H. B. And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

The Court having ascertained that each of the 18 persons so selected and drawn to serve as Grand Jurors possessed all the qualifications required by law for Grand Jurors, Luther D.
