and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 7th day of March, 1939. B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Viz: Dewey Bailey, Isom V. Legg, Robert A. Downs, Andrew M. Shelton, Edward Jr. Magnusson, Tom G. Williamson, Walton Gray, Carlie D. White, and J. Buckner.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

To-wit: Leonard C. Cox, Malcolm C. Lovell, J. Binford Turner, Cyltus McLemore, Fletcher Owen, Dave C. Madry, Zenos Evas, Ebby Nelson, Will H. Copeland, Roland Worthy, Otis Pyron, Asa L. Hasting, Tom T. Hamilton, Robert Harold, Gilbert Luther M. Hodson, T. Edward Claxton, B. Phillip Gilbert and Carlos J. Boyd.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Ebby Nelson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Emmett Weatherford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 7th day of March, 1939 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Viz: Dewey Bailey, Isom V. Legg, Robert A. Downs, Andrew M. Shelton, Edward Jr. Magnusson, Tom G. Williamson, Walton Gray, Carlie D. White, and J. Buckner.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

To-wit: Leonard C. Cox, Malcolm C. Lovell, J. Binford Turner, Cylltus McLemore, Fletcher Owen, Dave C. Madry, Zenos Evas, Ebby Nelson, Will H. Copeland, Roland Worth, Otis Pyron, Asa L. Hasting, Tom T. Hamilton, Robert Harold Gilbert, Luther D. Hodson, T. Edward Claxton, B. Phillip Gilbert, and Carlos J. Boyd.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Ebby Nelson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Emmett Weatherford. was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 7th day of March, 1939. B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Viz: Dewey Bailey, Isom V. Legg, Robert A. Downs, Andrew M. Shelton, Edward Jr. Magnusson, Tom G. Williamson, Walton Gray, Carlisle D. White, and J. Buckner

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

To-wit: Leonard C. Cox, Malcolm C. Lovell, J. Binford Turner, Clytus McLemore, Fletcher Owen, Dave C. Madry, Zenos Evas, Ebby Nelson, Will H. Copeland, Roland Worth, Otis Pyron, Asa L. Hasting, Tom T. Hamilton, Robert Harold Gilbert, Luther D. Hodson, T. Edward Claxton, B. Phillip Gilbert, and Carlos J. Boyd.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Ebby Nelson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Emmett Weatherford. was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 7th day of October, 1937. B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 67 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Viz: Kenneth Weatherford, W. Ed. Estes Jr., Ed W. Massey, Lamote Whitehurst, Lyman W. Truman, Foster L. Magnusson, T. H. (Jack) Gilbert, Thad M. Black, Roy C. Clem, Chas. H. Liddsey, Ed. L. Lerman, John H. Vining, Emmett B. Furguson, Robert O. Delly, Wm. R. Black and R. L. (Jack) Christopher.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

To-wit: James A. Turner, Geol F. Wells, Floyd Wallace, Milton Holmes, George Shannon Henry W. Gordon, Muray L. Hudson, Leander Nelson, Knox M. Biles, Emory Shelton, Will T. Peete, Straud J. Sims, Buren Carter, R. Foster Patterson, James E. Patterson, Jas. A. Chapman, Kyle W. McDonald And Foster Miller.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Emory Shelton was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

John A. Fielding. was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Ben G. Adams, John H. Harlow, Aubry Todd, Charlie B. Beasley, W. Alex Greenhaw,
James E. Beasley, Jr., Piersa Dawson, Dennis O. Looney, David L. Rosenau, Sr.,
John H. Black, Clint Ezell, D. Ben Garrett and Robert B. Riddle

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____)
unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

T. Emmett Black, Edward May, Ezra Terry, Sewell Newby, Ronald Beasley, Hershell F. Davis,
George J. Kennemer, Clifford C. Kelly, Wm. Earl Steelman, James D. Hamilton, Ben Cole,
Luther J. Blakely, Judge Horton Kelly, Richard Gilbert, Otto Boeswetter, John C. Adkinson, Noble F. Holland, and Ernest Hargrove, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. James D. Hamilton was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Emmett Weatherford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 5th day of October, 1939 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Mat E. Woodfin

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Ben G. Adams, Hohn H. Harlow, Aubry Todd, Charlie B. Beasley, W. Alex Greenhaw, James E. Beasley, Jr., Piere Dawson, Dennis O. Looney, David L. Rosenau, Sr.,
John H. Black, Clint Ezell, D. Ben Garrett and Robert B. Riddle

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

T. Emmett Black, Edward May, Ezra Terry, Sewell Newby, Ronald Beasley, Hershell F. Davis,
George J. Kennemer, Clifford C. Kelly, Wm. Earl Steelman, James D. Hamilton, Ben Cole,
Luther J. Blakely, Judge Horton Kelly, Richard Gilbert, Otto Boeswetter, John C. Adkinson,
Noble F. Holland, and Ernest Hargrove

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court James D. Hamilton was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Emmett Weatherford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 5th day of October, 1939 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Mat E. Woodfin

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Ben G. Adams, John H. Harlow, Aubry Todd, Charlie B. Beasley, W. Alex Greenhaw,
James E. Beasley, Jr., Piere Dawson, Dennis C. Looney, David L. Rosenau, Sr.,
John H. Black, Clint Esell, D. Ben Garrett and Robert B. Riddle

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

T. Emmett Black, Edward May, Ezra Terry, Sewell Newby, Ronald Beasley, Hershell F. Davis,
George J. Kennamer, Clifford C. Kelly, Wm. Earl Steelman, James D. Hamilton, Ben Cole,
Luther J. Blakely, Judge Horton Kelly, Richard Gilbert, Otto Boeswetter, John C. Adkinson,
Noble F. Holland, and Ernest Hargrove

James D. Hamilton

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Emmett Weatherford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 9th day of March, 1939 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Ernest Sullivan

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Dewey Bailey, Isom V. Legg, Robert A. Downs, Andrew M. Shelton, Edward J. Magnusson, Walton Gray, Tom G. Williamson, Carlie D. White, and J. Leonard Buckner

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Leonard C. Cox, Malcolm C. Lovell, J. Binford Turner, Clytus McLemore, Fletcher Owen Dave C. Madry, Zenos Evans, Ebby Nelson, Will H. Copeland, Roland Worthy, Otis Pyron, Asa L. Hasting, Tom T. Hamilton, Robert Harold Gilbert, Luther E. Hodson, T. Edward Claxton, B. Phillip Gilbert and Carlos J. Boyd

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Ebby Nelson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Emmett Weatherford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Ernest Sullivan

D. S.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Dewey Bailey, Isom V. Legg, Robert A. Downs, Andrew M. Shelton, Edward J. Magnusson, Walton Gray, Tom G. Williamson, Charlie D. White, and J. Leonard Buckner

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
 who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone
 County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of..... ($.....)
 unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final
 and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Leonard C. Cox, Malcolm C. Lovell, J. Binford Turner, Clytus McLemore, Fletcher Owen
Dave C. Madry, Zenas Evans, Ebby Nelson, Will H. Copeland, Roland Worthy, Otis Pyron, Asa L. Hasting, Tom T. Hamilton, Robert Harold Gilbert, Luther E. Hodson, T. Edward Claxton, B. Phillip Gilbert and Carlos J. Boyd

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Ebby Nelson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Emmett Weatherford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 6th day of October, 19 38 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Clint E. Brock

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Howard Y. Douthit, J. David Scott, Felix G. Bates, James W. Coffman, B. Fred Martin, Jas. E. Beasley, Jr., Joe S. McDonald, Ernest Ruff, D. Ben Garrett, Sol Mogill, James H. Hobbs, J. William Barker, Walter M. Bryant and Clint Ezell

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Robert E. Leopard, Marvin Webb, Elmer Brooks, J. Horton Kelly, Olon E. Shaw, Roy Magnusson, Phillip L. Hightower, Wm. C. Burns, Robert Black, Wm. Malcolm Maples, Rabon McCommack, Arthur B. Lipscomb, Wm. Wesley Yancey, Otto Eisenman, John L. Copeland, Andrew J. Rowe, Ellis E. House and John H. Bitting

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Roy Magnusson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

George Norton was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 6th day of October, 1933 H. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 66 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Clint E. Brock

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Howard Y. Douthit, J. David Scott, Felix O. Bates, James W. Coffman, B. Fred Martin, Jas. E. Beasley, Jr., Joe S. McDonald, Ernest Ruff, D. Ben Garrett, Sol McGill, James H. Hobbs, J. William Barker, Walter M. Bryant and Clint Ezell

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Robert E. Leopard, Marvin Webb, Elmer Brooks, J. Horton Kelly, Olen E. Shaw, Roy Magnusson, Phillip L. Hightower, Wm. C. Burns, Robert Black, Wm. Malcolm Maples, Rabon McCormack, Arthur B. Lipscomb, Wm. Wesley Yancy, Otto Eisenman, John L. Copeland, Andrew J. Rowe, Ellis E. House and John E. Bitting

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Roy Magnusson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. George Norton was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of March, 19_____, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of _____ Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

_____, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.
After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

And it appearing to the Court that _____
_____ had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:
_____ the sum of _____ ($_____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
_____ was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 8th day of October, 1936 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Ras. E. Hodges

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

Lila Parks, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

John T. Griggs, Sam T. Flanigan, John H. Peebles, Raymond H. Patterson, Chas. F. King,
Roy L. Thomas, Arthur A. Keys, C. Vaughn McKee, Fred Brock, Herman Andrews, Chas L.
Williamson, Wm. E. Griffin, Roy Whitt, John R. Cain, Boyd Biles and Eugene B. Greenhaw.

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Chas. H. Long, Robert L. Thomas, Floy Wood, Robert Graham, Herbert W. Norton,
George Vinson, Sam E. Kennemer, Wm S. Peebles, Clifford L. Pitman, Exum Newby,

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 8th day of October, 19 36 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 66 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Ras. E. Hodges

Jas. E. Welliden, Sheriff.
Lila Parks, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

John T. Griggs, Sam T. Flanigan, John H. Peebles, Raymond H. Patterson, Chas. F. King,
Roy L. Thomas, Arthur A. Keys, C. Vaughn McKee, Fred Brock, Herman Andrews, Chas L.
Williamson, Wm. E. Griffin, Roy Whitt, John R. Cain, Boyd Biles and Eugene B. Greenhaw.

And it appearing to the Court that

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Chas. H. Long, Robert L. Thomas, Floy Wood, Robert Graham, Herbert W. Norton,
George Vinson, Sam E. Kennemer, Wm S. Peebles, Clifford L. Pitman, Exum Newby,
James W. Fox, B. Phillip Gilbert, Milton Moore, Andrew M. Shelton, Albert B. Hasting, Wm. C. Armstrong, Joe Holt and Carl M. Norton,

Chas. H. Long
who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court.....was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 10th day of March, 19 38 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 63 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Viz: William Worthy, Ben Head, Fred Brock, Cecil M. Wood and Ed F. Puryear, Jr

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

To-wit: Malcolm C. Grisham, Jesse O. Looney, Ewell Hightower, Field G. Adams, Mat E. Woodfin, Robert O. Gordon, Wm. M. Dupree, Steve F. Johnson, Clarence Rose, Joseph I. Fuqua, Joe Terry, P. Walter Ball, Geo. W. Thornton, Robert M. Hodges, Luther Wales, Oscar L. Brakefield, Huston T. Hardison and J. E. (Leonard) Wells, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Wm. M. Dupree was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Jesse L. Eastep was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 5th day of October, 1939 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Mat E. Woodfin

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Ben G. Adams, Hohn H. Harlow, Aubry Tood, Charlie B. Beasley, W. Alex Greenhaw, James E. Beasley, Jr., Piere Dawson, Dennis O. Looney, David L. Râsenau, Sr., John H. Black, Clinton Ezell, D. Ben Garrett and Robert B. Riddle.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

T. Emmett Black, Edward May, Ezra Terry, Sewell Newby, Ronald Beasley, Hershell F. Davis, George J. Kennemer, Clifford C. Kelly, Wm. Earl Steelman, James D. Hamilton, Ben Cole, Luther J. Blakely, Judge Horton Kelly, Richard Gilbert, Otto Boeswetter, John C. Atkinson, Noble F. Holland and Ernest Hargrove

James D. Hamilton who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Emmett Weatherford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 6th day of October, 19 38 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Clint E. Brock

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Howard Y. Douthit, J. David Scott, Felix G. Bates, James W. Coffman, B. Fred Martin, Jas. E. Beasley Jr., Joe S. McDonald, Ernest Ruff, D. Ben Garrett, Sol Mogil, James H.
Hobbs, J. William Barker, Walter M. Bryant, and Clint Ezell

And it appearing to the Court that

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Robert E. Leopard, Marvin Webb, Elmer Brooks, J. Horton Kelly, Olon E. Shaw, Roy Magnusson, Phillip L. Hightower, Wm. C. Burns, Robert Black, Wm. Malcolm Maples, Rabon McCommack, Arthur B. Lipscomb, Wm. Wesley Yancey, Otto Eisenman, John L. Copeland, Andrew J. Rowe, Ellis E. House and John H. Bitting

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court.....Roy Magnusson.....was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

George Norton.....was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 7th day of October, 19 37 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 67 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

Kenneth Weatherford, W. Ed. Estes Jr., Ed W. Massey, LaMonte Whitehurst, Lyman W. Truman, Foster L. Magnusson, T. H. (Jack) Gilbert, Thad M. Black, Roy C. Clem, Chas. H. Lindsay, Ed. L. Lerman, John H. Vining, Emmett B. Furguson, Robert O. Kelly, Wm. R. Black and R. L. (Jack) Christopher

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

James A. Turner, Geo. F. Wells, Floyd Wallace, Milton Holmes, George Shannon, Henry W. Gordon, Murry L. Hudson, Leander Nelson, Knox M. Biles, Emory Shelton, Will T. Peete, Straud J. Sims, Buren Carter, R. Foster Patterson James E. Patterson, Jas. E. Chapman, Kyle W. McDonald, and Foster Miller

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Emory Shelton was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
John R. Fielding was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

T. Emmett Black, Edward May, Ezra Terry, Sewell Newby, Ronald Beasley, Hershell F. Davis, George J. Kennemer, Clifford C. Kelley, Wm Earl Steelman, James D. Hamilton, Ben Cole, Luther J. Blakely, Judge Horton Kelly, Richard Gilbert, Otto Boeswetter, John C. Atkinson, Noble F. Holland and Ernest Hargrove

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. James D. Hamilton was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Samuel Weatherford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 7th day of March, 19 40 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Samuel Jones (Col)

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Grady P. Gaston, Marvin A. Barksdale, Ed W. Massey, Sam M. Bowen, Clifton A. Groce, James D. Holland, James H. Holt, Robert O. Kelley, and Raymond H. Patterson

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 7th day of March, 1940 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 66 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Samuel Jones (Col)

Martin P. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Grady P. Gaston, Marvin A. Barksdale, Ed W. Massey, Sam M. Bowen, Clifton A. Groce, James D. Holland, James H. Holt, Robert O. Kelley, and Raymond H. Patterson

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Maek R. Bullington, John B. Griffin, Mathew W. Mollunn, Jim Mack Easter, John G. Gatlin, Robert E. Clanton, T. Wesley Hargrove, Will G. Robinson, Ellis W. Massey, Buel Owens, Hollis G. Ingram, Turner Biggerstaff, Howard Y. Douthit, Silbert Sowers, Lester J. Evans, Clarence B. Smith, John V. Barber and George W. Thornton

Howard Y. Douthit was selected who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. George F. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 7th day of March, 19 40 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Samuel Jones (Col)

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Grady P. Gaston, Marvin A. Barksdale, Ed W. Massey, Sam M. Bowen, Clifton A. Grace,
James D. Holland, James H. Holt, Robert O. Kelley, and Raymond H. Patterson

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Mack R. Bullington, John B. Griffin, Mather W. McMunn, Jim Mack Easter, John G. Gatlin,
Robert E. Clanton, T. Wesley Hargrove, Will G. Robinson, Ellis W. Massey, Buel Owens,
Hollis G. Ingram, Turner Biggerstaff, Howard Y. Douthit, Gilbert Bowers, Lester J. Evans,
Clarence B. Smith, John V. Barber, and George W. Thornton

Howard Y. Douthit

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

George F. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 12th day of October, 19 40 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Henry E. Neal, Jr., who was not found

_____, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Clint Chapman, Guin O. McKinney, J. Jackson Swanner, Frank T. Richardson, Jr.,
Edmond P. Garrett, Shelby Sanderson, Lucian D. Carey, and Harry Taft

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____)
unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Rollie M. Sims, Charlie A. Poole, Ike B. Daws, R. Porter Kirk, John Pepper,
W. Dewitt Gatlin, Ivan V. Andrews, Kirby Broadway, Theo Calvin, Albert Mitchell Poole, Grady G. McLemore, Massie D. Poteet, Ulhan Knowles, Wm. R. Bailey, Charlie T. Cox, Chas. O. McEniry, Jr., Osmon Cox and Raymond A. Brackeen;

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Theo Calvin was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Emmett Weatherford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 05 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Henry B. Neal, Jr., who was not found

....., Sheriff.

....., D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Clint Chapman, Guin O. McKinney, J. Jackson Swanner, Frank T. Richardson, Jr.,

Edmond P. Garrett, Shelby Sanderson, Lucian D. Carey, and Harry Taft

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as.....
 who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone
 County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
 unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final
 and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Rollie M. Sims, Charlie A. Poole, Ike B. Daws, R. Porter Kirk, John Pepper,

W. Dewitt Gatlin, Ivan V. Andrews, Kirby Broadway, Theo Calvin, Albert Mitchell Poole,

Grady C. McLemore, Massie D. Potest, Urban Knowles, Wm. R. Bailey, Charlie T. Cox,

Chas. C. McNairy, Jr., Simon Cox and Raymond A. Brackeen

Theo Calvin

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court..... was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Emmett Weatherford

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 12th day of October, 19 40 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Henry E. Neal, Jr., who was not found

_____, Sheriff.

_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Clint Chapman, Guin O. McKinney, J. Jackson Swanner, Frank T. Richardson, Jr.,
Edmond P. Garrett, Shelby Sanderson, Lucian D. Carey, and Harry Taft

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____)
unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Rollie M. Sims, Charlie A. Poole, Ike B. Daws, R. Porter Kirk, John Pepper,
W. Dewitt Gatlin, Ivan V. Andrews, Kirby Broadway, Theo Calvin, Albert Mitchell Poole, Grady G. McLenore, Massie D. Poteet, Ulkan Knowles, Wm. R. Bailey, Charlie T. Cox,
Chas. O. McNairy, Jr., Oamon Cox, and Raymond A. Brackeen

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ Theo Calvin _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Emmett Weatherford _____ was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 7th day of March, 1940. B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Samuel Jones (Col)

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Grady P. Gaston, Marvin A. Barksdale, Ed W. Massey, Sam M. Bowen, Clifton A. Groce,
James D. Holland, James H. Holt, Robert O. Kelley and Raymond H. Patterson.

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of , the said person , to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against , for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Mack R. Bullington, John B. Griffin, Mathew W. McMunn, Jim Mack Easter, John G. Gatlin,
Robert E. Clanton, T. Wesley Hargrove, Will G. Robinson, Ellis W. Massey, Buel Owens,
Hollis G. Ingram, Turner Biggerstaff, Howard Y. Douthit, Gilbert Bowers, Lester J. Evans
Clarence B. Smith, John V. Barber and George W. Thornton

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Howard Y. Douthit was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

George A. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 12th day of October, 1940 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Henry E. Neal, Jr.

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Clint Chapman, Guin O. McKinney, J. Jackson Swanner, Frank T. Richardson, Jr.,
Edmond P. Garrett, Shelby Sanderson, Lucian D. Carey, and Harry Taft.

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Rollie M. Sims, Charlie A. Poole, Ike B. Daws, R. Porter Kirk, John Pepper, W. Dewitt Gatlin, Ivan V. Andrews, Kirby Broadway, Theo Calvin, Albert Mitchell Poole, Grady G. McLemore, Massie D. Poteet, Uhlan Knowles, Wm. R. Bailey, Charlie T. Cox, Chas. O McEniry, Jr., Osmon Cox and Raymond A. Brackeen, Theo C

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Theo Calvin was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Emmett Weatherford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 12th day of October, 19 40 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Henry E. Neal, Jr.

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Clint Chapman, Guin O. McKinney, J. Jackson, Swanner, Frank T. Richardson, Jr., Edmond P. Garrett, Shelby Sanderson, Lucian D. Carey, and Harry Taft.

And it appearing to the Court that

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 12th day of October, 19 40 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: Henry E. Neal, Jr.

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Clint Chapman, Guin O. McKinney, J. Jackson, Swanner, Frank T. Richardson, Jr., Edmond P. Garrett, Shelby Sanderson, Lucian D. Carey, and Harry Taft.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Rollie M. Sims, Charlie A. Poole, Ike B. Daws, R. Porter Kirk, John Pepper, W. Dewitt Gatlin, Ivan V. Andrews, Kirby Broadway, Theo Calvin, Albert Mitchell, Poole, Grady G. McLemore, Massie M. and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 6th day of March, 1941 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 63 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

B. Fred Martin, Carl Robinson, Roy C. Clem, N. Kelly Bitting, Ollie Patterson and Mask C. Craig

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($_____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Homer M. Clem, Jerome Vasser, James D. Osborn, Claud Holt, Emory O. Lee, Lucien B. Grubbs, David Barkedale, John W. Seasley, Clarence E. Modson, Will T. Pett, Walton Gray, Ollie B. Griggs, Henry Clay Rogers, George Taylor, William R. Hightower, Herman Boyd, Marvin M. Gray and Lonnie C. Hudson.

William R. Hightower
who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
_____ was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 4th day of March, 1937 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of Grand Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Isom T. Woodfin

This the 28th day of July 1941

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Homer Whitworth, August Ruff, Jr., James L. Adams, Roy H. Turner, Chas. B. Beasley, Sam G. Easter, Jim M. Easter, Homer F. Dunivant, E. T. Gray, Jr., and Aubry Todd.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

David A. Hazlewood, D. Elmer White, Tom H. Black, Alvis Davenport, George W. Brown, John W. Hodges, Mason Pugh, Audie M. Christopher, Gordon Easter, Wallace R. Craig, H. Clay Roberts, Chas. A. Kaufman, John Pepper, Claud R. Brakéfield, Herman P. Gilbert, Wm. Dale Holt, Samuel R. Clanton, and Thomas G. Williamson

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Audie M. Christopher was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

F. K. Rogers was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 7th day of March, 19 40 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Samuel Jones (Col)

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Grady P. Gaston, Marvin A. Barksdale, Ed W. Massey, Sam M. Bowen, Clifton A. Groce,
James D. Holland, James H. Holt, Robert O. Kelly, and Raymond H. Patterson

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Mack R. Bullington, John B. Griffin, Mathew W. McMunn, Jim Mack Easter, John G. Gatlin,
Robert E. Clanton, T. Wesley Hargrove, Will G. Robinson, Ellis W. Massey, Buel Owens,
Hollis G. Ingram, Turner Biggerstaff, Howard Y. Douthit, Hilbert Bowers, Lester J. Evans,
Clarence B. Smith, John V. Barber, and George W. Thornton

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Howard Y. Douthit was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
George F. Siniard was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 4th day of March, 1937. B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Isom T. Woodfin

This the 28th day of July, 1941

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Homer Whitworth, August Ruff, Jr., James L. Adams, Roy H. Turner, Chas. B. Beasley, Sam G. Easter, Jim M. Easter, Homer F. Dunivant, E. T. Gray, Jr., and Aubry Todd.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

David A. Hazlewood, D. Elmer White, Tom H. Black, Alvis Davenport, George W. Brown, John W. Hodges, Macon Pugh, Audie M. Christopher, Gordon Easter, Wallace R. Craig, H. Clay Roberts, Chas. A. Kaufman, John Pepper, Claud R. Brakefield, Herman P. Gilbert, Wm. Dale Holt, Samuel R. Clanton, and Thomas G. Williamson

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Audie M. Christopher was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

F. K. Rogers was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

B. Fred Martin, Carl Robinson, Roy C. Clem, N. Kelly Bitting, Ollie Patterson and Mack C. Craig.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Homer M. Clem, Jerome Vasser, James D. Osborn, Claud Holt, Emory O. Lee, Lucian B. Grubbs, David Barksdale, John C. Beasley, Clarence E. Dodson, Will T. Peet, Walton Gray, Ollie B. Griggs, Henry Clay Rogers, George Taylor, William R. Hightower, Herman Boyd, Marvin M. Gray and Lonnie C. Hudson,

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. William R. Hightower was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 6th day of March, 1941 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 63 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Marvin T. Bates, John Coffman and John C. Holt

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

B. Fred Martin, Carl Robinson, Roy C. Clem, N. Kelly Bitting, Ollie Patterson and Mack C. Craig.

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Homer M. Clem, Jerome Vasser, James D. Osborn, Claud Holt, Emory O. Lee, Lucian B. Grubbs, David Barksdale, John C. Bensley, Clarence E. Dodson, Will T. Peet, Walton Gray, Ollie B. Griggs, Henry Clay Rogers, George Taylor, William R. Hightower, Herman Boyd, Marvin M. Gray and Lonnie C. Hudson,

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. William R. Hightower was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 12th day of October, 1940. B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Henry E. Neal, Jr.

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Clint Chapman, Guin O. McKinney, J. Jackson Swanner, Frank T. Richardson, Jr., Edmond P. Garrett, Shelby Sanderson, Lucian D. Carey, and Harry Taft.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Rollie M. Sims, Charlie A. Poole, Ike B. Laws, R. Porter Kirk, John Pepper, W. Dewitt Gatlin, Ivan V. Andrews, Kirby Broadway, Theo Calvin, Albert Mitchell Poole, Grady G. McLemore, Massie D. Poteet, Uhlan Knowles, Wm. R. Bailey, Charlie T. Cox, Chas. O. McEniry, Jr., Osmon Cox and Raymond A. Brackeen, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Theo Calvin was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Emmett Weatherford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 12th day of October, 1940 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Henry E. Neal, Jr.

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
Clint Chapman, Guin O. McKinney, J. Jackson Swanner, Frank T. Richardson, Jr., Edmond P. Garrett, Shelby Sanderson, Lucian D. Carey, and Harry Taft.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Rollie M. Sims, Charlie A. Poole, Ike B. Daws, R. Porter Kirk, John Pepper, W. Dewitt Gatlin, Ivan V. Andrews, Kirby Broadway, Theo Calvin, Albert Mitchell Poole, Grady G. McLemore, Massie D. Pooleet, Uhlan Knowles, Wm. R. Bailey, Charlie T. Cox, Chas. O. McEniry, Jr., Osmon Cox and Raymond A. Brackeen,

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Theo Calvin was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Emmett Weatherford was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 9th day of October, 1941 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 56 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert C. Bibb, James H. Sutton, Will W. Sloan, Osmon Cox, Arthur B. Whitt, Clint Chapman and Rubin A. Meadows

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Herbert F. Gray, Otho C. Tidwell, J. Edward Hardaway, R. H. (Pony) Adams, Robert R. Hall, Atha R. Hargrove, Price Thomas, Robert E. Clanton, Buren Carter, Chas. H. Long, Malcolm C. Lovell, Freeman Gust, Emory R. Shelton, Dupree Phillips, Charlie Biggerstaff, Franklin Thomas, R. Asberry Campbell and Fletcher Pitts,

Chas. H. Long who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 9th day of October, 1941 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 56 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert C. Bibb, James H. Sutton, Will W. Sloan, Osmon Cox, Arthur D. Whitt, Clint Chapman and Rubin A. Meadows

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Herbert F. Gray, Otho C. Tidwell, J. Edward Hardway, R. H. (Pony) Adams, Robert R. Hall, Atha R. Hargrove, Price Thomas, Robert E. Clanton, Buren Carter, Chas. H. Long, Malcolm C. Lovell, Freeman Gust, Emory R. Shelton, Dupree Phillips, Charlie Biggerstaff, Franklin Thomas, R. Asberry Campbell and Fletcher Pitts, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
Robert C. Bibb, James H. Sutton, Will W. Sloan, Camon Cox, Artham D. Whitt, Clint Chapman and Rubin A. Meadows

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:
Herbert F. Gray, Otho C. Tidwell, J. Edward Hardway, R. H. (Pony) Adams, Robert R. Hall, Atho R. Hargrove, Price Thomas, Robert E. Clanton, Buren Carter, Chas. H. Long, Malcolm C. Lovell, Freeman Gust, Emory A. Shelton, Dupree Phillips, Charlie Biggerstaff, Franklin Thomas, R. Asberry Campbell and Fletcher Pitts,

Chas. H. Long who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 9th day of October, 19 42 41 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 56 Jurors on all of the within named persons ~~names~~

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert C. Bibb, James H. Sutton, Will W. Sloan, Osmon Cox, Arthur D. Whitt
Clint Chapman and Rubin A. Meadows

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____)
unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Herbert F. Gray, Otho C. Tidwell, J. Edward Hardway, R. H. (Pony) Adams,
Robert R. Hall, Atha R. Hargrove, Price Thomas, Robert E. Clanton, Buren Carter,
Chas. H. Long, Malcolm C. Lovell, Freeman Gust, Emory R. Shelton, Dupree Phillips,
Charlie Biggerstaff, Franklin Thomas, R. Asberry Campbell and Fletcher Pitts

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 9th day of October, 19 42 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 56 Jurors on all of the within named persons ~~names~~

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
Robert C. Bibb, James H. Sutton, Will W. Sloan, Oamon Cox, Arthur D. Whitt
Clint Chapman and Rubin A. Meadows

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($)
unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
Herbert F. Gray, Otho C. Tidwell, J. Edward Hardway, R. H. (Pony) Adams,
Chas. H. Long, Malcolm C. Lovell, Freeman Gust, Emory R. Shelton, Dupree Phillips,
Charlie Biggerstaff, Franklin Thomas, R. Asberry Campbell and Fletcher Pitts

Chas. H. Long
who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 8th day of October, 19 42 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
William E. Griffin, H. Dee Bailey and Marvin Webb

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

J. Ed Legg, Rudy Morris, Roy H. Turner, Raymond Newby, Walter C. Bailey, Mason J. Bean,
R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Richard Wray, Henry H. Menefee, Jr., Frank Crouch and
T. Norman Puryear

And it appearing to the Court that

who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

George T. Williamson, Fritz Gey, W. Marion Stinnett, Alton Clem, Chas. C. Varnell,
J. Nathan Grubbs, John Brooks, Huston T. Hardison, Will G. Robinson, Jeff Tarpley,
Sam Wright, Isiah R. Cribbs, Otto Boeswetter, T. Hatch Harrison, Edward H. Vinson,
Frank Thos. Ellenburg, Charles Taylor and George R. Allen, Jr.,

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court.....Isiah R. Cribbs.....was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
R. L. Thomas.....was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 63 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

William E. Griffin, E. Dee Bailey and Marvin Webb

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____

 who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone
 County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

..... the sum of..... ($.....)
 unless..... appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final
 and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Isiah R. Cribbs

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 8th day of October, 19 42 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
William E. Griffith, H. Dee Bailey and Marvin Webb

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
J. Ed Legg, Rudy Morris, Roy H. Turner, Raymond Newby, Walter C. Bailey, Mason J. Bean, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Richard Wray, Henry H. Menefee, Jr., Frank Crouch and T. Norman Puryear

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:
George T. Williamson, Fretz Gey, W. Marion Stinnett, Alton Clem, Chas. C. Varnell, J. Nathan Grubbs, John Brooks, Huston T. Hardison, Will G. Robinson, Jeff Tarpley, Sam Wright, Isiah R. Cribbs, Otto Boeswetter, T. Hatch Harrison, Edward H. Vinson, Frank Thos. Ellenburg, Charles Taylor and George R. Allen, Jr.,

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Isiah R. Cribbs was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 8th day of October, 19 42 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 63 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
William E. Griffith, H. Dee Bailey and Marvin Webb

Martin F. White, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
J. Ed Legg, Rudy Morris, Roy H. Turner, Raymond Newby, Walter C. Bailey, Eason J. Bean, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Richard Gray, Henry H. Menefee, Jr., Frank Crouch and T. Norman Puryear

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:
George T. Williamson, Freta Gay, W. Marion Stinnett, Alton Clem, Chas. C. Varnell, J. Nathan Grubbs, John Brooks, Huston T. Hardison, Will G. Robinson, Jeff Tarpley, Sam Wright, Isaiah R. Cribbs, Otto Boeswetter, T. Hatch Harrison, Edward H. Vinson, Frank Thos. Ellenburg, Charles Taylor and George R. Allen, Jr.,

Isiah R. Cribbs

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 8th day of October, 19 42 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
William E. Griffith, H. Dee Bailey and Marvin Webb

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

J. Ed Legg, Rudy Morris, Roy H. Turner, Raymond Newby, Walter C. Bailey, Mason J. Bean,
R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Richard Wray, Henry H. Menafee, Jr., Frank Crouch and
T. Norman Puryear

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as
who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

George T. Williamson, Fretz Gay, W. Marion Stinnett, Alton Clem, Chas. C. Varnell,
J. Nathan Grubbs, John Brooks, Huston T. Hardison, Will G. Robinson, Jeff Tarpley,
Sam Wright, Isiah R. Cribbs, Otto Boeswetter, T. Hatch Harrison, Edward H. Vinson,
Frank Thos. Ellenburg, Charles Taylor and George R. Allen, Jr.,

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Isiah R. Cribbs was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this.....8th.....day of.....October....., 19.42.B. S. Turrentine....., Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of..... 65.....Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

William E. Griffith, H. Dee Bailey and Marvin Webb.

.....Martin F. Whitt....., Sheriff.

....., D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered; and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

J. Ed Legg, Rudy Morris, Roy H. Turner, Raymond Newby, Walter C. Bailey, Mason, J. Bean, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Richard Wray, Henry H. Menefee, Jr., Frank Crouch, and T. Norman Puryear.

And it appearing to the Court that

Witness this.....7th day of.....October....., 1943.B. S. Turrentine....., Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of.....30.....Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Melvin C. Sims

.....Martin F. Whitt....., Sheriff.

....., D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

C. Edwin Spencer and Paul A. Ragan

And it appearing to the Court that

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Melvin C. Sims

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

C. Edwin Spencer and Paul A. Ragan

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 7th day of October, 1943 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Melvin C. Sims

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

C. Edwin Spencer and Paul A. Ragan

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Lucian D. Carey, Rollie M. Sims, Ben L. Vinson, Carl M. Graham, James E. Chapman, J. Edward Hardaway, Max Robinson, W. C. (Bill) Abernathy, Raymond A. Brackeen, William C. Spence, Earl N. Legg, Edward K. Burgreen, Judge Horton Kelly, Roy Farrer (col), J. M. (Bud) Sertin, George S. Lewter, Tom C. Garner, and Grady G. Craig.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Edward K. Burgreen was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 7th day of October, 1943 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Melvin C. Sims

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

C. Edwin Spencer and Paul A. Ragan

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Lucian D. Carey, Rollie M. Sims, Ben L. Vinson, Carl M. Graham, James E. Chapman, J. Edward Hardaway, Max Robinson, W. C. (Bill) Abernathy, Raymond A. Brackeen, William C. Spence, Earl N. Legg, Edward K. Burgreen, Judge Horton Kelly, Roy Farrer (col), J. M. (Bud) Sertin, George S. Lewter, Tom C. Garner, and Grady G. Craig.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Edward K. Burgreen was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 7th day of October, 1943 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Melvin C. Sims

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

C. Edwin Spencer and Paul A. Regan

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Lucien D. Carey, Rollie M. Sims, Ben L. Vinson, Carl M. Graham, James E. Chapman, J. Edward Hardaway, Max Robinson, W. C. (Bill) Abernathy, Raymond A. Brackeen, William C. Spence, Earl N. Legg, Edward K. Burgreen, Judge Horton Kelly, Roy Farrer (col), J. M. (Bud) Sartin, George S. Lester, Tom C. Garner, and Grady C. Craig.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Edward K. Burgreen was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 7th day of October, 1943 E. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 30 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Melvin C. Sims

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

C. Edwin Spencer and Paul A. Ragan

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Lucian D. Carey, Rollie M. Sims, Ben L. Vinson, Carl M. Graham, James B. Chapman, J. Edward Hardaway, Max Robinson, W. C. (Bill) Abernathy, Raymond A. Brackeen, William C. Spence, Earl N. Legg, Edward K. Burgreen, Judge Horton Kelly, Roy Farrer (col), J. M. (Bud) Sartin, Georbe S. Lewter, Tom C. Garner, and Grady G. Craig.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Edward K. Burgreen was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 6th day of March, 19 41 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 63 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Marvin T. Bates, John Coffman, and John C. Holt

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

B. Fred Martin, Carl Robinson, Roy C. Clem, N. Kelly Bitting, Ollie Patterson and Mack C. Craig.

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of , the said person , to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against , for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Homer M. Clem, Jerome Vasser, James D. Osborn, Claud Holt, Emory O. Lee, Lucian B. Grubbs, David Barksdale, John C. Beasley, Clarence E. Dodson, Will T. Peet, Walton Gray, Ollie B. Griggs, Henry Clay Rogers, George Taylor, William R. Hightower, Herman Boyd, Marvin M. Gray, and Lonnie C. Hudson.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court William R. Hightower was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 8th day of October, 1942 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

William E. Griffin, H. Dee Bailey and Marvin Webb

Martin F. Whitt, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

J. Ed Legg, Rudy Morris, Roy H. Turner, Raymond Newby, Walter C. Bailey, Mason J. Bean, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Richard Wray, Henry H. Menefee, Jr., Frank Crouch and T. Norman Puryear

And it appearing to the Court that

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

George T. Williamson, Fritz Gey, W. Marion Stinnett, Alton Clem, Chas. C. Varnell, J. Nathan Grubbs, John Brooks, Huston T. Hardison, Will G. Robinson, Jeff Tarpley, Sam Wright, Isiah R. Cribbs, Otto Beeswetter, T. Hatch Harrison, Edward H. Vinson, Frank Thos. Ellenburg, Charles Taylor, and George R. Allen, Jr.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Isiah R. Cribbs was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

R. L. Thomas was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this.....8th...day of.....October....., 19.42B. S. Turrentine....., Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of.....65.....Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

William E. Griffin, H. Dee Bailey and Marvin Webb.

.....Martin F. Whitt....., Sheriff.

....., D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

J. Ed Legg, Rudy Morris, Roy H. Turner, Raymond Newby, Walter C. Bailey, Mason J. Bean, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Richard Wray, Henry H. Menefee, Jr., Frank Crouch and T. Norman Puryear.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as..... who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....) unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

George T. Williamson, Fritz Gey, W. Marion Stinnett, Alton Clem, Chas. C. Varnell, J. Nathan Grubbs, John Brooks, Huston T. Hardison, Will G. Robinson, Jeff Tarpley, Sam Wright, Isiah R. Cribbs, Otto Boeswetter, T. Hatch Harrison, Edward H. Vinson, Frank Thos. Ellenburg, Charles Taylor and George R. Allen, Jr.,

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court.....Isiah R. Cribbs.....was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

R. L. Thomas.....was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.
