AMENDED MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

Now comes the defendant in the above styled cause and with leave of the Court first had and obtained amends the motion heretofore filed in this cause to set aside the verdict of the jury and the judgment of the Court rendered thereon and to grant unto the defendant a new trial by adding the following additional separate and several grounds for said motion:

9. The Court erred in refusing to give to the jury the following charge requested in writing by the defendant before the jury retired:

"16. I charge you, gentlemen of the jury, that if, after considering all the evidence, you have a reasonable doubt about the defendant's guilt, arising out of the evidence, you should find the defendant not guilty!"

10. The Court erred in refusing to give to the jury the following charge requested in writing by the defendant before the jury retired:

"7. The law presumes the defendant is innocent of the charge against him and this presumption of innocence is evidence in his behalf to be considered by you, and you cannot find him guilty, until, from the evidence, his guilt is established to your reasonable satisfaction, and beyond a reasonable doubt."

11. The Court erred in refusing to give to the jury the following charge requested in writing by the defendant before the jury retired:

"19. The court charges the jury that the defendant is presumed to be innocent until the evidence convinces the jury beyond all reasonable doubt that he is guilty; and if, upon a consideration of all the evidence, the jury have a reasonable doubt, growing out of all the evidence, they must acquit the defendant."

12. The Court erred in refusing to give to the jury the following charge requested in writing by the defendant before the jury retired:

"20. The presumption of innocence attends the accused as a matter of evidence, and is sufficient in itself to authorize the acquittal of defendant, and, to displace this presumption of innocence, the state is required to offer evidence that convinces you beyond all reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the defendant."

13. The Court erred in refusing to give to the jury the following charge requested in writing by the defendant before the jury retired:

"11. The Court charges the jury that before they can convict defendant the evidence must be so strong as to convince each juror of her guilt, beyond a reasonable doubt, and if after considering all the evidence a single juror has a reasonable doubt of defendant's guilt, arising out of any part of the evidence, they cannot convict her."

14. The Court erred in refusing to give to the jury the following charge requested in writing by the defendant before the jury retired:

"7. The court charges the jury that the burden is never on the defendant to establish her innocence or to disprove the facts necessary to establish a crime of which she is charged, but that in this case, if any or all the evidence after considering all of same, raises in the mind of the jury a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the defendant, you should acquit her."

15. The Court erred in refusing to give to the jury the following charge requested in writing by the defendant before the jury retired:

"D. I charge you, gentlemen of the jury, that if you believe from the evidence that the deceased made a sudden unprovoked murderous attack upon defendant, deceased at the time being armed with a deadly weapon and in the act of effectuating upon the defendant his murderous purpose, then, I charge you, the defendant was under no duty to retreat, but had the right to stand his ground and kill his assailant."

16. The Court erred in refusing to give to the jury the following charge requested in writing by the defendant before the jury retired:

"C. The court charges the jury that the burden is upon the state to convince your minds beyond all reasonable doubt from the testimony that the defendant provoked the difficulty, and unless the state has so convinced you, you should find the defendant not guilty, if from the evidence you are reasonably satisfied that, at the time the fatal shots were fired, the deceased was making a felonious assault upon the defendant, and the defendant fired the shots shown by the testimony to save his life, or to save himself from grievous bodily harm, you should find defendant not guilty."

17. The Court erred in refusing to give to the jury the following charge requested in writing by the defendant before the jury retired:

"A. I charge you, gentlemen of the jury, that a citizen may repel force with force in defense of his person against one who manifestly intends or endeavors by violence or surprise to take his life, and if the defendant was entirely free from fault in bringing on the difficulty, and did not enter the fight willingly and in good faith believed that she was in imminent peril, the defendant was not obliged to retreat and under such circumstances defendant had the right to take the life of the deceased."

18. The Court erred in refusing to give to the jury the following charge requested in writing by the defendant before the jury retired:

"X. The Court charged you gentlemen of the jury that if you believe all the evidence in the case you cannot find the defendant guilty."

19. The Court erred in refusing to give to the jury the following charge requested in writing by the defendant before the jury retired:

"Y. The court charges you, gentlemen of the jury, that you must find for the defendant."

20. The court erred in refusing to permit the defendant to introduce in evidence the reputation of the deceased, Arthur Garner, by the testimony of the defendant's witness, Sharp Gillespie.

21. The Court erred in refusing to permit the defendant to introduce in evidence the general notice of appeal to the Supreme Court of Alabama from the judgment heretofore entered in said cause without suspension of judgment.

Attorney for the Defendant.

MOTION TO SET ASIDE VERDICT OF JURY

Comes the defendant in the above styled cause and moves the Court to set aside the verdict of the jury in this cause and for grounds thereof assigns the following:

1. For that said verdict is excessive.

4. For that the jury verdict failed to confirm the agreement of this defendant to plead guilty and accept the minimum sentence of 10 years which agreement was made with the Circuit Solicitor of this Court.
5. For that said verdict is unjust.
6. For that the jury in hearing only evidence admitted by this defendant and no mitigating circumstances misunderstood the agreement hereto and failed to ratified and confirm same.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

Comes the defendant, Hester Williams, and jointly and severally moves the Court to set aside the verdict of the jury and the judgment of the Court entered thereon and moves the Court to grant to defendant a new trial and for grounds therefor assigns the following, separately and severally:

-1-

There is not sufficient evidence to support the verdict of the jury.

-2-

The verdict of the jury is contrary to the great weight of the evidence.

-3-

The verdict of the jury is contrary to the evidence in this case.

-4-

The verdict of the jury is contrary to the law in this case.

-5-

For that the Court refused to give, at the request of the defendant, the following written charge which correctly states the law in this case;--

5. If the facts, no matter how strong, can be reconciled with the theory that another may have committed the crime, the accused should be acquitted.

For that the Court refused to give, at the request of the defendant, the following written charge which correctly states the law in this case:--

10. If upon all the evidence the jury believes that the defendant is not probably guilty they must acquit him.

For that the Court refused to give, at the request of the defendant, the following written charge which correctly states the law in this case:--

13. The court charges the jury that a person charged with a felony should not be convicted unless the evidence excludes, to a moral certainty, every reasonable conclusion but that of this guilt; no matter how strong the circumstances are they do not come up to the full measure of proof which the law requires.

For that the Court refused to give, at the request of the defendant, the following written charge which correctly states the law in this case:--

14. The humane provision of the law is: That there should not be a conviction upon the evidence, unless to a moral certainty it excludes every other reasonable hypothesis than that of the guilt of the accused. No matter how strong may be the facts, if they can be reconciled with the theory that some other person may have done the act, then the guilt of the accused is not shown by that full measure of proof which the law requires.

-9-

For that the Court refused to give, at the request of the defendant, the following written charge which correctly states the law in this case.

100. I charge you, gentlemen of the Jury, that if you believe the evidence in this case you cannot find the defendant guilty.

For that the Court refused to give, at the request of the defendant, the following written charge which correctly states the law in this case:--

101. I charge you, Gentlemen of the Jury, that if you believe the evidence in this case you must find the defendant not guilty.

AMENDMENT TO MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

Now comes the defendant in the above styled cause and amends his motion to set aside the verdict of the jury and judgment of the Court in this cause and after leave of Court first had and obtained, by assigning the following additional grounds, separately and severally.

11. For that the Court overruled defendant's objection and allowed the witness, R.C. Babrin, to testify as to the relationship between one Charles Hargrove and defendant.

12. For that the Court at the conclusion of the State's evidence and after the State had rested their case refused to grant defendant's motion to exclude the evidence introduced by the State for that same failed to make out a case against this defendant.

13. For that the Court sustained the State's objection to defendant's question to Hester Williams when he was testifying as a witness for himself to the effect that he had paid L.M. Baugher the face amount of the check as soon as he found out about the check being turned down.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA-- JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

THE ALABAMA COURT OF APPEALS

8 Div. 440

OCTOBER TERM, 1953-54

Hester Williams,

v.

State.

Appeal from Limestone Circuit Court

CARR, PRESIDING JUDGE

This is an appeal from a judgment of conviction for the offense of forgery.

The instrument which is alleged to have been forged is a check dated "7-27-1952." This date was on Sunday.

The indictment does not allege or set out any circumstances extrinsic to the check itself showing it is not void.

We had this identical question before us for review in the case of Gooch v. State. 33 Ala. A pp. 31 So. 2d 779. We certified the following questions to the Supreme Court.

"1. Does a check dated on Sunday possess sufficient legal efficacy to defraud so as to be the subject of forgery where no extrinsic facts are alleged in the indictment?

"2. Does Title 9, Section 21, Code of Alabama 1940, prevent the prosecution in the name of the State for the forgery of an instrument dated on Sunday?"

The response is reported in 249 Ala. 477, 31 So. 776.

The effect of the Supreme Court decision is that a check given on Sunday is void and cannot be made the subject of forgery. To avoid this apparent defect the indictment must allege extrinsic facts which would enable the court to determine that it is valid.

Under this authority the indictment in the case at bar does not on its face charge any offense. It is the duty of this court to take note of this defect and to declare that it will not support the judgment of conviction. Mehaffey v.State, 16 Ala. App. 99, 75 So. 647; Brown v.State, 32. App. 246, 24 So. 2d 450.

It may be noted the evidence in the case discloses that the forgery and the uttering of the check took place on the Sunday the instrument is dated.

Under the circumstances incident to this appeal we do not see the need or necessity of remanding the cause, It is therefore ordered that the judgment below be reversed and judgment rendered discharging defendant from further custody in this proceeding. Title 15, Sec.390. Code 1940.

COPY OF OPINION

THE STATE OF ALABAMA --- JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT
THE ALABAMA COURT OF APPEALS

OCTOBER TERM, 1954-55

8 Div. 638

Johnnie R. Rager
vs.
State

Appeal from Limestone Circuit Court

BONE, JUDGE

Appellant was indicted for assault with intent to murder. He pleaded guilty to "assault and battery, having in his possession a weapon, to-wit: a shoe as charged in the indictment." He was found guilty by the court of "assault and battery having in his possession a weapon, to-wit: a shoe," and was sentenced to twelve months in the penitentiary. From this judgment he appeals.

Appellant's insistence for error which we will here consider is that the sentence is excessive. This insistence is based on the fact, as he contends, that he was convicted of the offense described by Section 33, Title 14, Code of 1940. If this contention be correct, the sentence is excessive.

So that the question here to be decided may appear more clearly we shall here set out the contents of Section, supra:

"Any person who commits an assault, or an assault and battery, on another, shall, on conviction, be fined not more than five hundred dollars, and may also be imprisoned in the county jail, or sentenced to hard labor for the county, for not more than six months."

Against appellant's contention, the State insists that the offense for which appellant was convicted and sentenced is defined by Section 34, Title 14, Code of 1940. If the contention of the State is correct, then the sentence here imposed is not excessive. Section 34, supra, reads in words and figures as follows:

"Any person who assaults and beats another with a cowhide, stick or whip, having in his possession at the time a pistol, or other deadly weapon, with intent to intimidate and prevent the person assaulted from defending himself, shall, on conviction, at the discretion of the jury, be fined not more than two thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail, or sentenced to hard labor, for the county, for not more than twelve months."

Having considered thoroughly the words used in the plea of guilty and in the judgment of the court, we are convinced that the offense for which appellant was sentenced is clearly not within the provisions of Section 34, supra. The offense does, however, fall within the class of assault and battery defined by Section 33, supra.

The wording of the statute, Section 34, supra, is clear, distinct, and free from all ambiguity, and we do not feel that it is necessary here to point out all of the distinctions between the offense for which appellant was sentenced and the offense described in Section 34. They are clear and apparent.

It should be noted also that the sentence was for imprisonment in the penitentiary, when it should have been for imprisonment in the county jail or hard labor for the county.

This appellant having been found guilty of assault and battery under Section 33, supra, and not Section 34, supra, as the State contends, his sentence is therefore excessive. This being true, we are of the opinion that this case should be, and the same is hereby, affirmed but remanded for proper sentence in accordance with this opinion.

AFFIRMED. REMANDED FOR PROPER SENTENCE.

THE SUPREME COURT OF ALABAMA

OCTOBER TERM, 1954-55

8 Div. 771

Bessie Lee Hayden
vs.
State of Alabama

Appeal from Limestone Circuit Court

GOODWYN, JUSTICE.

Appellant, Bessie Lee Hayden, was indicted and tried for the offense of murder in the first degree, the indictment charging that she "unlawfully and with malice aforethought, killed Arthur Garner, alias Arthur Johnson, by shooting him with a gun or pistol against the peace and dignity of the State of Alabama."

She entered a formal plea of "not guilty" under which she sought to prove self-defense as a justification for the shooting. The jury found her guilty of murder in the second degree and fixed her punishment at 25 years in the penitentiary. Sentence was passed in accordance with the jury verdict.

It is undisputed that the defendant shot deceased a number of times in a series of three separate and distinct shootings. The first was in the house in which both parties lived. Defendant testified that at the time of the first shooting the deceased, after cursing her and threatening to kill her, started towards deceased's shotgun which was standing against the wall a few feet from deceased. She shot him at least twice at that time while deceased was going towards his gun. The deceased then ran out of the house and very shortly thereafter attempted to regain entrance through a latched door. Defendant shot at him at least once through the door. It is not clear from the evidence whether deceased was hit by this shot. However, from the location of the bullet hole in the door and the number of bullet wounds later found on the body of deceased, the jury might reasonably have inferred that this was one of the shots that hit him. Deceased then went outside the house and sat on the edge of a ditch. The defendant then came out of the house to where deceased was sitting and there shot him at least twice more.

The deceased was taken to a hospital and died about two and a half months later. Although it seems clear from the evidence that the several shots were responsible for the complications finally resulting in decedent's death, there was no evidence tending to single out any particular shot or shots as the exclusive contributing cause.

On defendant's direct examination she was asked whether the deceased had ever threatened her prior to this difficulty. The state's objection to the question was sustained, the trial court stating: "So that you may know, I am sustaining that because there is no evidence of self-defense." While it may be that there was no evidence of self-defense with respect to the last shooting when considered alone, we nevertheless think there was sufficient evidence of self-defense with respect to the other two shootings to warrant admission of evidence of prior threats made by deceased against appellant. It is to be noted that the evidence does not establish that it was the last shooting which alone caused the death. There seems no way, in the state of the evidence with respect to the cause of death, to divide the cause so as to justify exclusion of evidence of evidence of prior threats with respect to the first two incidents of shooting. We think the defendant was entitled to show such prior threats made against her by deceased and are unwilling to say that the exclusion of such evidence was "error without injury" and did not probably injuriously affect substantial rights of the defendant. Rule 45, Rules of Practice in the Supreme Court, Code 1940, Tit. 7, Appendix.

The general rule is that evidence of prior threats is inadmissible prior to the introduction of some proof of self defense, but we do not think that rule applies to the circumstances of this case. Sanders v. State, 242 Ala. 532, 534, 7 So. 2d 483; Dunn alias Hopkins v. State, 143 Ala. 67, 71, 39 So. 147. It is our view that the evidence of prior threats should have been admitted for consideration by the jury. The applicable principle is thus stated in Turner v. State, 160 Ala. 40, 43, 49 So. 828;

"It is the well-settled rule in this jurisdiction, in cases of this character, and where the testimony tends to show self-defense, that threats made against the defendant by the deceased are competent, as evidence, to enlighten the jury trying the case upon the question of who was probably the assailant; and, as was said in the case of Roberts v. State, 68 Ala. 156, 168: 'Whether * * * threats taken in connection with the circumstances of the affray leading to and accompanying the killing, are sufficient to justify the act of homicide, is a question of fact for the jury, and it is not permissible for the court to determine it as matter of law. They cannot be excluded if there is the slightest evidence tending to prove a hostile demonstration, which can be reasonably interpreted as placing the accused, at the time of the killing, in apparent imminent danger to life or of other grievous bodily harm.'"

The following cases are to the same effect: McGuff v. State, 248 Ala. 259, 27 So. 2d 241; Beasley v. State, 181 Ala. 28, 32, 33, 61 So. 259.

Insistence is made that error was committed in sustaining the state's objections to questions seeking to establish defendant's general reputation for "peace and quiet" in the community in which she lived. There was no error in these rulings since the questions asked the witnesses were not limited to the time preceding the commission of the offense for which defendant was being tried. Jenkins v. State, 212 Ala. 484, 485, 103 So. 458; Smith v. State, 197 Ala. 193, 198, 72 So. 316; Williams v. State, 33 Ala. App. 304, 35 So. 2d 562, 566, aff. 250 Ala. 549, 35 So. 2d 567.

It follows, from what we have said, that the judgment of conviction is due to be reversed and the cause remanded. It is so ordered.

Reversed and remanded.

STATE OF ALABAMA, Plaintiff
VS:
CLAUDE PATTERSON, Defendant

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF LIMESTONE COUNTY, ALABAMA

No. 9107 & 9108

TO THE HONORABLE S.A. LYNNE, JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

Comes now the defendant, Claude Patterson in both of the above entitled causes pending in the Circuit Court of Limestone County, Alabama and would show to Your Honor as follows:

- 1. The defendant is not guilty of the matters and thing with which he is charged by indictment.
- 2. Defendant would show to the court that many months prior to the setting of this docket he employed as his attorney Russell W. Lynne, a practicing lawyer in Decatur, Morgan County, Alabama to defend him in the above entitled causes and this his attorney is unable to properly prepare a defense at this time for the causes as set out hereinbelow:

Said attorney has been employed, since his employment by this defendant, in the case of the State of Alabama Vs: Howard N. Battles who is charged by indictment with manslaughter in the 1st degree and that the said prosecution has received wide and infamous publicity throughout Northern Alabama and that there has previously summoned as witnesses for the said Howard N. Battles some 60 to 70 witnesses for the defendant Howard N. Battles and that said attorney, who represents this defendant and the said Howard N. Battles has been engaged constantly for the past weeks in preparing for the trial of the said Howard N. Battles and has heretofore filed motion and argued a motion for a change of venue for the said Howard N. Battles and this this defendant due to lack of opportunity for preparation by his attorney for defense would be deprived of a fair and impartial trial at this term of court.

That this defendant would be deprived of right to be represented by counsel of his own choosing if tried at this term of court.

That this is the first time that this prosecution has been set for trial and all witnesses against the defendant are law enforcement officers and will be available at the next regular term of this court as they are at this term of court hence the State of Alabama will not be prejudiced in any manner by a continuance of this cause at this time.

NOW WHEREFORE PREMISES considered this defendant prays judgment of this court that the above prosecutions be continued generally on motion of this defendant until the next regular term of this court to the end that he have a fair and impartial trial and full and complete justice be done both to the State of Alabama who is the prosecutor and to this defendant who is the defendant.

Defendant prays for any other judgment needful and necessary that justice be meted out to him.

PETITION FOR CHANGE OF VENUE

Now comes the defendant in the above styled cause and appearing specially for the purpose of this application and for no other purpose whatsoever, respectfully petitions and prays the court that the trial of this cause be removed from Limestone County, Alabama, to the county nearest thereto free from exception, and as grounds for said motion, sets out and assigns the following separately and severally, to-wit:

1. The defendant cannot have a fair and impartial trial before a jury of his own peers residing in Limestone County, Alabama, for that the minds of the general citizenry of Limestone County, Alabama, whether consciously or unconsciously, are made up to the effect that the defendant is guilty and should and ought to be convicted.
2. The citizens of Limestone County, Alabama are antagonistic towards this defendant.
3. The defendant as a former deputy sheriff of Limestone County, Alabama and as a highway patrolman stationed in Limestone County, Alabama has made approximately 400 arrests and has gained the disfavor of not only the defendants in each arrest case, but also has gained the enmity of the various defendants relatives, acquaintances and friends.
4. The homicide with which this defendant is charged was entirely justifiable as a matter of law and as a matter of fact.
5. The homicide with which this defendant is charged, has been given wide and untruthful publicity throughout Limestone County, Alabama through the medium of newspaper publications, radio and word of mouth all in disfavor to this defendant to the extent that prejudice and bias exist in the minds of the people of Limestone County, Alabama.
6. The prosecuting attorneys, either one or both, has been active in stirring up antagonism against the defendant in Limestone County, Alabama.
7. An unbiased and unprejudice jury cannot be empanelled to sit in judgment in this prosecution in Limestone County, Alabama.
8. The defendant is generally disliked in Limestone County, Alabama due to his diligence as a peace officer in said county.
9. This defendant is not guilty of the charge contained in the indictment against him.
10. This defendant shows unto the court that the killing of the said Wray (Ray) created intense excitement and resentment among the citizens of Limestone County, Alabama; that many expressions of malice and hatred have been made by many citizens of said county, and in each beat thereof, against this defendant; there now exist intense hatred and prejudice in the minds of a large part of the citizens in each and every beat of Limestone County, Alabama, against this defendant; that many expressions of opinion as to the guilt of the defendant have been openly made by the citizens through out the said Limestone County, Alabama; that open threats of violence against this defendant have been given expression too in said county; that at the time of the homicide the defendant was a member of the Alabama Highway Patrol stationed in Limestone County, Alabama and that a large portion of the citizens of Limestone County, Alabama have a feeling of hatred against the members of the Alabama Highway Patrol stationed in Limestone County, Alabama, of which Highway Patrol this defendant is a member.

NOW WHEREFORE PREMISES considered this defendant makes this his sworn application averring that he cannot have a fair and impartial trial in said Limestone County, Alabama, in which said indictment was found, and he therefore, moves the court that his trial be removed to the nearest county free from exception, and petitioner moves the court that the court make and enter an order granting him a change of venue and will remove the trial of the above stated cause from Limestone County, Alabama, to the nearest county which is free from exception.

1. For that said application was not made as early as practicable before the trial.

STATE'S DEMURRER TO APPLICATION FOR CHANGE OF VENUE

Comes now the State of Alabama by and through its Solicitors and demurs to the application for change of venue heretofore filed in this cause and to each and every ground thereof separately and severally and as grounds of said demurrer sets down and assigns the following separately and severally:

1. For that same is insufficient as a matter of law.
2. For that same is merely a conclusion of the pleader without sufficient facts being alleged in support thereof.
3. From aught appearing the alleged prejudice and bias does not exist at the time of the filing of the application for change of venue.
4. For that no sufficient facts are alleged to show that bias and prejudice existed against defendant at the time of the filing of the application for a change of venue.
5. For that same seeks to determine the guilt or innocence of the defendant.
6. For that same fails to allege sufficient facts to show any activity on the part of the prosecuting attorneys which would prevent the defendant from obtaining a fair and impartial trial.
7. The allegation that "the prosecuting attorneys, either one or both, has been active in stirring up antagonism against the defendant in Limestone County, Alabama" is a mere conclusion of the pleader.
8. From aught appearing the alleged activity on the part of the prosecuting attorneys in stirring up antagonism against the defendant was not such as to prevent the defendant from obtaining a fair and impartial trial in Limestone County, Alabama.
9. For that same is vague, indefinite and uncertain.
10. From aught appearing the alleged disfavor and enmity against the defendant is not such as would prevent the defendant from obtaining a fair and impartial trial in Limestone County, Alabama.
11. From aught appearing the alleged publicity which has been given the homicide with which the defendant is charged was not such as would prevent the defendant from obtaining a fair and impartial trial in Limestone County, Alabama.
12. For that same is immaterial and not germane to the matters and issues here involved.
13. From aught appearing the alleged dislike of the defendant in Limestone County, Alabama would not prevent the defendant from obtaining a fair and impartial trial in Limestone County, Alabama.
14. For that a determination of the guilt of the defendant cannot lawfully be made upon a hearing of the application of defendant for a change of venue.
15. From aught appearing the alleged hatred of the citizens of Limestone County, Alabama against the members of the Alabama Highway Patrol would in no way prevent the defendant from obtaining a fair and impartial trial.
16. It affirmatively appears that the application is not in due form of law.
17. It affirmatively appears that the application is not verified as required by law.
